Edmund Dulac Colin White,1976      Edmund Dulac Edmund Dulac,1970      An Edmund Dulac Treasury Edmund Dulac,2011-06-16 Rooted in tales both ancient and modern these vibrant images date from the early twentieth century's Golden Age of Illustration Edmund Dulac a prominent artist of the period created them for books published between 1905 and 1928 Their moods range from the shadowy foreboding of Jane Eyre to the venturesome spirits of Treasure Island and the lighthearted fantasies of A Fairy Garland Other featured titles include Shakespeare's The Tempest The Arabian Nights The Rubiyat of Omar Khayyam and the fairy tales of Hans Christian Andersen French born Edmund Dulac arrived in London in 1904 when new advances in the printing process kindled a rage for picture books Dulac's imaginative powers and technical skills assured the popularity of his book illustrations many of which were sold separately as fine art paintings After World War I when the appetite for deluxe volumes waned the artist turned his talents in many new directions including portraiture theatrical costume and set design newspaper caricature and stamp design This retrospective of his early works is the only such anthology available offering a singular tribute to an artist from a halcyon era of art inspired by literature      Edmund Dulac Hartnoll & Eyre Ltd,1970      Dulac's Fairy Tale Illustrations in Full Color Edmund Dulac,2013-07-02 These 55 masterworks by one of the most influential illustrators of children's books include exquisite images for The Sleeping Beauty Cinderella The Snow Queen The Real Princess and other beguiling tales      Edmund Dulac Birthday Book Edmund Dulac,Suzy Siddons,1981-11-01      Edmund Dulac's Picture-Book for the French Red Cross Various,2013-04-16 Edmund Dulac's Picture Book for the French Red Cross is a stunning work produced in the midst of the First World War by a true genius of illustration It was originally published in 1915 and contains twenty colour images Dulac was a French born British naturalised magazine illustrator book illustrator and stamp designer who despite his increasing years wished to help the war effort in any way he could The drawings are delicately drawn notable for their classic fairy tale charms and Japanese stylistic influence The skilfully coloured images further refine the enchantingly simple story telling all presented together in this text It is a book to be enjoyed by both young and old a beautiful object produced at a time of great peril Stories include The Story of the Bird Feng A Chinese Tale Layla and Majnun A Persian Love Story The Nightingale Hans Christian Andersen Cinderella A French Fairy Tale Bluebeard A French Tale The Lady Badoura Arabian Nights and others Pook Press celebrates the great Golden Age of Illustration in children's literature a period of unparalleled excellence in book illustration from the 1880s to the 1930s Our collection showcases classic fairy tales children's stories and the work of some of the most celebrated artists illustrators and authors      Edmund Dulac's Fairy-Book: Fairy Tales of the Allied Nations Edmund Dulac,1916-01-01 The old wife sang merrily as she sat in the inglenook stirring the soup for she had never felt so sad Many many years had come and gone leaving the weight of their winters on her shoulders and the touch of snow on her hair without ever bringing her a little child This made her and her dear old husband very sad for there were many children outside playing in the snow

It seemed hard that not even one among them was their very own But alas there was no hope for such a blessing now Never would they see a little fur cap hanging on the corner of the mantelpiece nor two little shoes drying by the fire The old husband brought in a bundle of wood and set it down Then as he heard the children laughing and clapping their hands outside he looked out at the window There they were dancing with glee round a snow man they had made He smiled as he saw that it was evidently meant to look like the Mayor of the village it was so fat and pompous Look Marusha he cried to the old wife Come and see the snow man they ve made As they stood together at the window they laughed to see what fun the children got out of it Suddenly the old man turned to her with a bright idea Let s go out and see if we can t make a little snow man But Marusha laughed at him What would the neighbours say They would poke fun at us it d be the joke of the village Besides we re too old to play like children But only a little one Marusha only a teeny weeny little snow man and I ll manage it that nobody sees us Well well she said laughing have your own way as you always did Youshko With this she took the pot from the fire put on her bonnet and they went out together As they passed the children they stopped to play with them a while for they now felt almost like children themselves Then they trudged on through the snow till they came to a clump of trees and behind this where the snow was nice and white and nobody could see them they set to work to make their little man The old husband insisted that it must be very small and the old wife agreed that it should be almost as small as a new born babe Kneeling down in the snow they fashioned the little body in next to no time Now there remained only the head to finish Two fat handfuls of snow for the cheeks and face and a big one on top for the head Then they put on a wee dab for the nose and poked two holes one on each side for the eyes
