Eduardo Chillida Eduardo Chillida, Giovanni Carandente, 2003 The sculptural work of Chillida San Sebastian 1924 2002 is non figurative and characterised in the artist's own words by the dialogue between masses and voids of often monumental proportions elements that he endows with conceptual unity thanks to his mastery of the laws of movement and balance In this book Carandente far from restricting himself to commenting on the most visible aspects of the artist's career analyses the conceptual and technical dimensions of his activity both the individual task of searching and perfecting and the socio cultural context that acts as a framework to the Basque sculptor's output Chillida is undoubtedly one of the most outstanding figures in the sculpture of the second half of the 20th century 782 illustrations Chillida in New York Eduardo Chillida, 2009 Eduardo Chillida 1924 2002 is among the 20th century sculptors who have decisively contributed to the non figurative vocabulary of sculpture and its material innovation Along with steel stone and concrete he has favoured wrought iron as a material that as he says he subjects to a dynamic process and forcefully endows with his own vibrations till the theme has fully crystallized and space and form become inseparable The sculptural form which avoids identification and in contrast to the pieces by Henry Moore hardly even reminds us of the volume of our body serves as an instrument to make empty space visible Chillida's writings which in this book are published for the first time take the reader into the mental world of the sculptor his philosophical reflections and notations on his work all of which serve the concentration of energy found in the collection This publication includes text written by renowned British sculptor Tony Cragg English text technique varies chronicling the artist's sculpting career started with iron and steel then timber marble alabaster concrete
