Educating For Character:

Educating for Character Thomas Lickona, 1992-09-01 Calls for renewed moral education in America's schools offering dozens of programs schools can adopt to teach students respect responsibility hard work and other values that should not be left to parents to teach

Character Matters Thomas Lickona, 2004-02-10 In Why Character Matters a leader in the character education movement and author of the landmark book Educating for Character Lickona now lays out 100 specific strategies that will help parents as well as teachers instill children with the values that will help them lead good and successful lives

Educating Hearts and Minds Edward F. DeRoche, Mary M. Williams, 2001 A great resource for teaching that character matters in furthering the ideals on which this country has been built Carol Russo Principal William Lloyd Garrison School Bronx NY The soil of our schools has lost a nurturing ingredient that is essential to give life to the ideas and the efforts of educators That missing nurturing ingredient is the school's moral mission DeRoche and Williams have written a sound and practical book not only for educators but for anyone interested in learning exactly how schools can navigate these often shoal filled waters Kevin Ryan From the Foreword Educating Hearts and Minds 2nd Edition This second edition merges new ideas in character education research with best practices in schools and districts The authors provide the most up to date and comprehensive framework for K 12 administrators educators and concerned citizens It offers easy access to practical and proven methods supported by in depth rationale Highlighted are keys for success in building an effective character education program Six sets of standards for character education Six tips for leaders Five tips to ensure reaching consensus Five classroom expectations Strategies for school culture and classroom climate Steps for developing a values curriculum Co curricular activities Teaching principles Staff development and personnel training Assessment The authors propose standards promising practices and assessment instruments that can be personalized to fit the needs and interests of any school student population school district or community A must have resource for the concerned and committed educator and parent

Education with Character James Arthur, 2003-08-29 The establishment of citizenship education as a compulsory subject has recently been accompanied by the government's policy of promoting education with character Schools are identified as having a crucial role to play in helping to shape and reinforce basic character traits that will ultimately lead to a better society This radical new policy is explicitly linked to raising academic standards and to the needs of the emerging new economy This book provides an introduction to character education within the British context by exploring its meanings understandings and rationale through the perspective of a number of academic disciplines The author examines character education from a philosophical religious psychological political social and economic perspective to offer a more detailed understanding of character education and what it can offer He also considers how British schools can implement character education successfully and what lessons we can draw from the American experience This book will be of interest to academics researchers policy makers and teachers with responsibility for citizenship education in their schools

Educating Character Through Stories David Carr, Tom Harrison, 2015-01-14 What could be the point of teaching such works of bygone cultural and literary inheritance as Cervantes Don Quixote and Shakespeare's The Merchant of Venice in schools today This book argues that the narratives and stories of such works are of neglected significance and value for contemporary understanding of human moral association and character However in addition to offering detailed analysis of the moral educational potential of these and other texts the present work reports on a pioneering project recently pursued by the Jubilee Centre for Character and Virtues concerned precisely with the use of these and other stories for moral and character education in schools The success of the Knightly Virtues project is an inspiring story in its own right and should therefore be of enormous interest to all schools teachers and parents rightly concerned with this all important aspect of their children's educational development Teaching Character Education Through Literature Karen Bohlin, 2005-05-03 Offering guidance to teachers on including character education within their lessons this book shows how teachers can provide an encounter with literature that enables students to be more responsive to ethical themes and questions Character Matters Thomas Lickona, 2004-02 The author introduces his Character Education program designed to give parents and teachers the essential tools and strategies for raising responsible conscientious and compassionate children Educating Character Through the Arts Laura D'Olimpio, Panos Paris, Aidan P. Thompson, 2022-11-18 This volume investigates the role of the arts in character education Bringing together insights from esteemed philosophers and educationalists it looks to the arts for insight into human character and explores the arts relationship to human flourishing and the development of the virtues Focusing on the moral value of art and considering questions of whether there can be educational value in imaginative and non narrative art the nine chapters herein critically examine whether poetry music literature films television series videogames and even gardening may improve our understanding of human character sharpen our moral judgement inculcate or refine certain skills required for virtue or perhaps cultivate certain virtues or vices themselves Bringing together research on aesthetics ethics moral and character education this book will appeal to students researchers and academics of philosophy arts and education as well as philosophers of education morality aesthetics and teachers of the arts PRIMED for Character Education Marvin W Berkowitz, 2021-04-21 Winner of the 2023 Outstanding Book Award from AERA's Moral Development and Education SIG In PRIMED for Character Education renowned character educator Marvin W Berkowitz boils down decades of research on evidence based practices and thought provoking field experience into a clear set of principles that leaders administrators and teacher leaders can implement to help students thrive The author's original six component framework offers a comprehensive guide to shaping purposeful learning environments healthy relationships core values and virtues role models empowerment and long term development in any PreK 12 school or district This engaging and heartfelt book features tips for practice anecdotes from award winning schools and straightforward tenets from moral education social emotional learning and positive psychology Developing a Character Education Program Henry A. Huffman, 1994 Character

Education Harry Charles McKown, 1935 Teach Me Success! Roger Leslie, 2015 An at a glance ready reference guide for teachers counselors and librarians who have been charged with character education in the classroom this book provides detailed analysis of seven fundamental character traits modeled in 111 award winning children's books Winners of state Child Choice Book Awards since 2005 in each of the 50 states are examined for core interpersonal character qualities including courage creativity undeterred self motivated Detailed charts for each award winning book identify which SUCCESS traits are displayed on which pages and by which characters along with lesson plan tips analyses and comparisons The most extensive analysis of character traits in children's literature notes Marvin Berkowitz pioneering national character education leader With this resource at their fingertips teachers can easily develop lesson plans using popular literary characters from kids favorite books lesson plans that are dynamic multidisciplinary easy to implement and compliant with the national mandate on character education in the classroom Character Education Sharron L. McElmeel, 2002 Provides a fresh way of teaching children the importance of values and good character Character Education Edward F. DeRoche, Mary M. Williams, 2001 Contemporary schools require far more than just the three R's Beyond the books and tests educational facilities are expected to produce members of society with integrity as well Character education is an abstract idea that many educators both teachers and administrators have a difficult time implementing and too often it gets left out of the curriculum How do school personnel then instill values of good character in students and as an administrator how do you spread these values to the entire school DeRoche and Williams provide school leaders with an effective road map touring schools that have achieved success The authors divide the reader's journey through reform efforts into several tour stops beginning with a review of the character education framework passing through subjects such as school climate core values training personnel forming relationships and concluding with guidelines for evaluation Each stop contains a list of helpful articles or books as well as valuable Internet resources The conclusion of the journey is ultimately the responsibility of school leaders but this book will give you a head start Philosophical Foundations for Moral Education and Character Development George F. McLean, Frederick Edward Ellrod, 1992 Character Education in America's Blue Ribbon Schools Madonna Murphy, 2002-10-23 Character Education in America's Blue Ribbon Schools is based upon descriptive documentary and qualitative research conducted on the award winning school applications in the United States Department of Education's Elementary School Recognition Program i.e. the Blue Ribbon Schools The purpose of the program is to focus national attention on schools that are doing an exceptional job with all of their students Areas studied are developing a solid foundation of basic skills and knowledge of subject matter and fostering the development of character values and ethical judgment The first edition of this book reported on the first decade of this program from 1985 to 1994 The second edition adds the schools that have won the award from 1996-2001 Included are the Blue Ribbon schools that applied for Special Honors in Character Education and five that actually won that recognition in 1998-1999 This edition finds character education much stronger in American schools in recent years and is full of many promising practices It is a practical book that will guide school administrators teachers parents board members and concerned citizens interested in starting or strengthening the character education focus of their school

An Integrated Approach to Character Education Timothy Rusnak, 1998 This book proposes an effective action oriented way of addressing students values and character growth The contributors emphasize combining three vital aspects of teaching and learning thinking feeling and acting Contributing authors address the principles that form the integrated approach to character education Two chapters are devoted to each principle with a practitioner and a research scholar offering a balanced view Real world examples help translate the six key principles into an integrated character education program Character education is a part of every subject Integrated character education is action education A positive school environment helps build character Character development is encouraged through administrative policy and practice Empowered teachers promote character development The school and community are vital partners in developing character The information in this book can help you teach your students to Feel and show empathy for others self esteem Respect others rights Develop and use self discipline Recognize their own responsibilities This book shows what you can do to promote character growth in students and teach them how to know right from wrong An integrated approach to teaching character education will make all the difference in the way your students think feel and act
