McKeown, 2019-01-15 Recent years have seen social justice emerge as a powerful driver for work both in law schools and the legal services sector However questions remain about how that term is understood and given meaning within the legal academy and beyond This edited collection explores the meanings that have emerged and might subsequently be developed together with a practical exploration of projects that have sought to bring the social justice agenda to life in law schools and in communities around the world Over the course of eighteen chapters this volume engages with a range of social justice and legal education themes including clinical legal education innocence projects access to justice cause lawyering LGBTQ identities and sustainability in law schools In addition it also explores themes of ethics and values in contemporary legal education in Africa Australia North America and the UK The Ethics Project in Legal Education Michael

Robertson, Lillian Corbin, Kieran Tranter, Francesca Bartlett, 2010-10-06 The contributions in this volume suggest that the ethics project in legal education is increasingly an international one Even though the strength of commitment by both the profession and the legal academy to ethics learning within law schools varies two fundamental questions confront all who work in this area First what is it that we want our students to learn or perhaps in what manner do we want our students to develop from the teaching of legal ethics Second how can we create a learning environment that will encourage the nature and quality of learning we think is important All the contributors to this volume take a strong stand on the importance of ethical legal practice and the role of law schools in developing students capacities in this area They share a belief in the essential need to encourage law students to engage with the moral dimensions of legal practice The questions that these scholars grapple with are therefore not of the should we be teaching this variety but how might we best to go about doing this so that our efforts within law schools really make some difference Each of the chapters in this volume adds uniquely to our understanding of these matters Australian Clinical Legal Education Adrian Evans, Anna Cody, Anna Copeland, Jeff Giddings, Peter Joy, Mary Anne Noone, Simon Rice, 2017-02-17 Clinical legal education CLE is potentially the major disruptor of traditional law schools core functions Good CLE challenges many central clichés of conventional learning in law everything from case book method to the 50 minute lecture And it can challenge a contemporary overemphasis on screen based learning particularly when those screens only provide information and require no interaction Australian Clinical Legal Education comes out of a thorough research program and offers the essential guidebook for anyone seeking to design and redesign accountable legal education that is education that does not just transform the learner but also inculcates in future lawyers a compassion for and service of those whom the law ought to serve Established law teachers will come to grips with the power of clinical method Law students struggling with overly dry conceptual content will experience the connections between skills the law and real life Regulators will look again at law curricula and ask law deans when
