Educating Artistic Vision:

Educating Artistic Vision Elliot W. Eisner, 1972 Surveys the status of elementary art education programs the growth of a child's aesthetic perception and creativity and the current trends in art curricula development Evaluating and Assessing the Visual Arts in Education Douglas Boughton, Elliot W. Eisner, Johan Ligtoet, 1996-01-01 Developing a Curriculum Model for Civically Engaged Art Education Sara Scott Shields, Rachel Fendler, 2023-07-31 This volume explores art as a means of engendering youth civic engagement and draws on research conducted with young people in the United States to develop a unique curriculum model for civically engaged art education CEAE Combining concepts from civics and arts education chapters posit that artistic thinking making and acting form the basis for creative research into social and political issues which affect young people and are key to promoting civic participation Focusing on critical creative and dynamic forms of youth cultural production inspired by local people places and events the text demonstrates how educators curricular choices can engage students in researching social movements and arts based activism The authors draw from well established areas such as arts based research civic engagement and maker centered learning to present their educational model through illustrative examples Offering a timely consideration of the relationship between art education and civics education this book will appeal to scholars and students of the sociology of education as well as arts and teacher research and pre service teacher education Why Art Cannot Be Taught James Elkins, 2001-05-17 He also addresses the phenomenon of art critiques as a microcosm for teaching art as a whole and dissects real life critiques highlighting presuppositions and dynamics that make them confusing and suggesting ways to make them more helpful Elkins's no nonsense approach clears away the assumptions about art instruction that are not borne out by classroom practice For example he notes that despite much talk about instilling visual acuity and teaching technique in practice neither teachers nor students behave as if those were their principal goals He addresses the absurdity of pretending that sexual issues are absent from life drawing classes and questions the practice of holding up great masters and masterpieces as models for students capable of producing only mediocre art He also discusses types of art including art that takes time to complete and art that isn't serious that cannot be learned in studio art classes The Development and Education of the Mind Howard Gardner, 2006-06-28 Leading American psychologist and educator Howard Gardner has assembled his most important writings about education Spanning over thirty years this collection reveals the thinking the concepts and the empirical research that have made Gardner one of the most respected and cited educational authorities of our time Trained originally as a psychologist at Harvard University Howard Gardner begins with personal sketches and tributes to his major teachers and mentors He then presents the work for which he is best known the theory of multiple intelligences including a summary of the original theory and accounts of how it has been updated over the years Other seminal papers featured include education in the arts the nature of understanding powerful ways in which to assess learning broad statements about the educational enterprise how education is likely to evolve in the globalised world of the twenty first century Art in the Early Years Kristen Ali Eglinton, 2003-12-16 This book is a complete art education resource for all involved in early years art education Teachers trainee teachers or nursery teachers who wish to implement a more holistic art curriculum in the classroom whilst meeting all the required Rethinking Basic Design in Architectural Education Mine Ozkar, 2017-03-27 Rethinking Basic Design in Architectural Education provides historical and computational insights into beginning design education for architecture Inviting the readers to briefly forget what is commonly known as basic design it delivers the account of two educators Denman W Ross and Arthur W Dow from the turn of the twentieth century in Northeast America interpreting key aspects of their methodology for teaching foundations for design and art This alternate intellectual context for the origins of basic design as a precursor to computational design complements the more haptic more customized and more open source design and fabrication technologies today Basic design described and illustrated here as a form of low tech computation offers a setting for the beginning designer to consciously experience what it means to design Individualized dealings with materials tools and analytical techniques foster skills and attitudes relevant to creative and technologically adept designers The book is a timely contribution to the theory and methods of beginning design education when fast changing design and production technology demands change in architecture schools foundations curricula Aesthetic Theory Across the Disciplines Max Ryyänen, Zoltán Somhegyi, 2023-11-13 What is aesthetics How is it related to other disciplines The chapters of this book examine the history theoretical conditions and connection points between aesthetics and other disciplines At the same time the authors are also interested in practical clashes of methodology and agenda especially when it is not merely about the securing of the position of one or the other discipline but is used in a dialogical manner as the form of understanding better the nature of both as well as the benefits of their collaboration The authors work on the border of aesthetics and at least one other academic field Through their regular scholarly activities the contributors constantly benefit from cross and interdisciplinary practice and this makes them ideal interpreters of these methodological questions Contributors include Mami Aota Karl Axelsson Paul Duncum Lisa Giombini Oiva Kuisma Jacob Lund Tyrus Miller Max Ryyänen Mateusz Salwa Zoltán Somhegyi Wendy Steiner and Joseph Tanke Subject Teaching in Primary Education Patrick Smith, Lyn Dawes, 2014-03-20 An essential read for trainee and newly qualified teachers covering all key areas of the primary curriculum There is a real sense of experienced and enthusiastic practitioners writing about what makes good and why with lots of clear practical examples of how to put ideas into practice Jackie Keith Deputy Head and Programme Leader for School Direct London East Teacher Training Alliance To be a successful teacher in primary schools you need to have an informed understanding of a wide range of subjects This book provides clear guidance of good practice teaching different subjects in primary education informed by current curriculum directions and full of practical advice for the classroom Key features Clear links to the 2014 National Curriculum in England In the classroom examples from schools demonstrate intelligent and engaging ways to teach different subjects Reflective questions challenge you to critically engage with what you have read and apply it to your own teaching This is essential reading for students on primary initial teacher education courses including university based PGCE BA QTS BEd school based SCITT School Direct and employment based routes into teaching The New Handbook of Research on Music Teaching and Learning Richard Colwell, Carol

Richardson, 2002-04-18 Featuring chapters by the world's foremost scholars in music education and cognition this handbook is a convenient collection of current research on music teaching and learning This comprehensive work includes sections on arts advocacy music and medicine teacher education and studio instruction among other subjects making it an essential reference for music education programs The original Handbook of Research on Music Teaching and Learning published in 1992 with the sponsorship of the Music Educators National Conference MENC was hailed as a welcome addition to the literature on music education because it serves to provide definition and unity to a broad and complex field Choice This new companion volume again with the sponsorship of MENC explores the significant changes in music and arts education that have taken place in the last decade Notably several chapters now incorporate insights from other fields to shed light on multi-cultural music education gender issues in music education and non-musical outcomes of music education Other chapters offer practical information on maintaining musicians' health training music teachers and evaluating music education programs Philosophical issues such as musical cognition the philosophy of research theory curriculum and educating musically are also explored in relationship to policy issues In addition to surveying the literature each chapter considers the significance of the research and provides suggestions for future study Covering a broad range of topics and addressing the issues of music education at all age levels from early childhood to motivation and self-regulation this handbook is an invaluable resource for music teachers researchers and scholars Art History and Education Stephen Addiss, Mary

Erickson, 1993 Guided by Stephen Addiss's grounding in art history scholarship and Mary Erickson's expertise in art education theory and practice this volume approaches the issue of teaching art history from theoretical and philosophical as well as practical and political standpoints In the first section Addiss raises issues about the discipline of art history In the second Erickson examines proposals about how art history can be incorporated into the general education of children and offers some curriculum guides and lesson plans for art educators Fifty Modern Thinkers on Education Liora

Bresler, David Cooper, Joy Palmer, 2002-09-11 Fifty Modern Thinkers on Education looks at fifty of the twentieth century's most significant contributors to the debate on education Among those included are Pierre Bourdieu Elliot Eisner Hans J Eysenck Michel Foucault Henry Giroux Jürgen Habermas Susan Isaacs A S Neill Herbert Read Simone Weil Together with Fifty Major Thinkers on Education this book provides a unique history of educational thinking Each essay gives key biographical information an outline of the individual's principal achievements and activities an assessment of his or her impact and influence and a list of their major writings and suggested further reading Counternarratives from Asian American Art Educators Ryan Shin, Maria Lim, Oksun Lee, Sandrine Han, 2022-12-26 Counternarratives from Asian American Art Educators Identities Pedagogies and Practice beyond the Western Paradigm collects and explores the professional and pedagogical narratives of Asian art educators and researchers in North America. Few studies published since the substantial immigration of Asian art educators to the United States in the 1990s have addressed their professional identities in higher education K-12 and museum contexts. By foregrounding narratives from Asian American arts educators within these settings, this edited volume enacts a critical shift from Western Eurocentric perspectives to the unique contributions of Asian American practitioners. Enhanced by the application of the AsianCrit framework and theories of intersectionality, positionality, decolonization, and allyship, these original contributor counternarratives focus on professional and pedagogical discourses and practices that support Asian American identity development and practice. A significant contribution to the field of art education, this book highlights the voices and experiences of Asian art educators and serves as an ideal scholarly resource for exploring their identity formation, construction, and development of a historically underrepresented minoritized group in North America.

Handbook of Research and Policy in Art Education Elliot W. Eisner, Michael D. Day, 2004-04-12 This work provides an overview of the progress that has characterized the field of research and policy in art education. It profiles and integrates history, policy, learning, curriculum, and instruction, assessment, and competing perspectives.

School Subject Teaching Ashley Kent, 2013-12-19 Covering each of the core curriculum areas, in turn, this is a reference on school subject teaching. The authors assess the development of teaching within each subject area since the 1944 Education Act up to the year 2000. Future challenges are also explored.

International Handbook of Research in Arts Education Liora Bresler, 2007-09-04 Providing a distillation of knowledge in the various disciplines of arts education—dance, drama, music, literature, and poetry, and visual arts—the Handbook synthesizes existing research literature, helps define the past, and contributes to shaping the substantive and methodological future of the respective and integrated disciplines of arts education. While research can at times seem distant from practice, the Handbook aims to maintain connection with the lived practice of art and of education, capturing the vibrancy and best thinking in the field of theory and practice. The Handbook is organized into 13 sections, each centering on a major area or issue in arts education research. These areas include History of arts education, curriculum, evaluation, cultural centers, appreciation, composition, informal learning, child culture, creativity, the body, spirituality, and technology. The individual chapters address cross-cultural research related to the central theme of the section from the perspectives of the particular arts discipline. Interludes provide reflective thoughts on the theme.

Fifty Modern Thinkers on Education Joy Palmer, David Edward Cooper, Liora Bresler, 2001 Looks at fifty of the twentieth century's most significant contributors to the debate on education. Each essay gives key biographical information, an outline of the individual's principal achievements and activities, an assessment of his or her impact and influence, and a list of their major writings and suggested further reading.
