Education and the Barricades Charles Frankel, 1968

Education and training information exchange, 1979

On Display: Visual Politics, Material Culture, and Education Karin Priem, Kerstin te Heesen, 2016 This book focuses on one of the most successful photography exhibitions in history The Family of Man With The Family of Man as its reference point this collection of essays takes a closer look at visual and material objects It examines their relevance for educational issues and exhibition designs We understand these issues in their broadest sense to encompass processes of citizenship and identity formation and the adoption and or preservation of ethical and political values with effects that range from the micro to the macro from the national to the international level The overall hypothesis of this volume is that images objects and designs were created and employed as performers and performances that interacted with and attracted mass audiences This book not only looks at how the presentational representational and social power of images objects and designs was deliberately used by political and cultural stakeholders during the mid 1950s but also how these technologies of display travelled through time and space and as historical objects interacted and continue to interact with new contexts and audiences

Betty A. Reardon: A Pioneer in Education for Peace and Human Rights Betty A. Reardon, Dale T. Snauwaert, 2014-08-26 Betty A Reardon is a world renowned leader in the fields of peace education and human rights her pioneering work has laid the foundation for a new cross disciplinary integration of peace education and international human rights from a gender conscious global perspective This collection of reflective inquiry and ongoing research gathers essential works on peace education and human rights 1967 2014 and provides access to Reardon s key works These texts have been foundational to the field of peace education during the past five decades of her practical experience The unique conceptualization of a holistic framework for organizing content and the practical and specific descriptions of pedagogies for the practice of critical peace education in schools and universities have made them essential resources for peace educators around the world several have already become standard texts for basic courses in the field The book also includes an overview of Reardon s career and a bibliography of her publications
