Edwards, 2002 This new Pillar volume offers exceptional commentary on Mark that clearly shows the second Gospel though it was a product of the earliest Christian community to be both relevant and sorely needed in today's church Written by a biblical scholar who has devoted thirty years to the study of the second Gospel this commentary aims primarily to interpret the Gosepl of Mark according to its theological intentions and purposes especially as they relate to the life and ministry of Jesus and the call to faith and discipleship Unique features of James Edwards s approach include clear descriptions of key terms used by Mark and revealing discussion of the Gospel's literary features including Mark's use of the sandwich technique and of imagistic motifs and irony Edwards also proposes a new paradigm for interpreting the difficult Little Apocalypse of chapter 13 and he argues for a new understanding of Mark's controversial ending

Moore, Cindy Klick, 2016-09-20 From the time the Wise Men came to bring gifts Christmas has been a time of giving gifts to our loved ones to the less fortunate to the church to favorite charities to family to friends and even to our pets In the best spirit of Christmas we give and receive Christmas gifts remembering the greatest Christmas gift of all God's gift of the Christ Child God's gift to us of a Savior As we give and receive Christmas gifts it is incredibly important to remember that the best Christmas gifts are wrapped in heaven Unfortunately sometimes we concentrate so much on the gifts we want to give to and receive from each other that we miss the special gifts Christmas has for us Christmas has some amazing gifts for us but the truth is that we need the miracle of God's grace to see them feel them hear them wrap our arms around them and celebrate them This study asks a very personal question What are the gifts you would really like to receive from Christmas this year And that is what this book is all about our thoughts and ruminations about the amazing life changing gifts Christmas has for us This Advent study has five sessions one for each Sunday of Advent and one for Christmas Leaders and participants work from the same book which includes readings for reflection a host of age appropriate teaching and learning activities that groups can choose to fit their needs and setting and a short devotional reading for each day of the Advent season
