Educational Technology and Resources for Synchronous Learning in Higher Education Yoon, Jiyoan,Semingson, Peggy,2019-04-19 As more classes move to online instruction there is a need for research that shows the effectiveness of synchronous learning Educators must guide students on how to use these new learning tools and become aware of the research trends and opportunities within these developing online and hybrid courses Educational Technology and Resources for Synchronous Learning in Higher Education provides evidence based practice on incorporating synchronous teaching tools and practice within online courses to enhance content mastery and community development. Additionally, the book presents a strong theoretical overview of the topic and allows readers to develop a more nuanced understanding of the benefits and constraints of synchronous learning. Covering topics such as game learning, online communication, and professional development, it is designed for online instructors, instructional designers, administrators, students, and researchers and educators in higher education as well as corporate, military, and government sectors. The New Handbook of Counseling Supervision L. DiAnne Borders, Lori L. Brown, 2022-04-25. The classic edition of this groundbreaking book includes a new preface from the authors discussing developments in the field since the handbook's initial publication. Chapters provide an overview of best principles and best practices in the counseling supervision process, one that is firmly rooted in the recent explosion of empirical research in this field. Sponsored by the Association for Counselor Education and Supervision (ACES), the book is targeted primarily at master's level practitioners who want practical how-to applications of the research literature rather than a comprehensive review of the supervision literature. It's also a useful supplement for more academic texts used for doctoral level instruction in counseling supervision. Uncommon Sense Teaching Barbara Oakley, PhD, Beth Rogowsky EdD, Terrence J. Sejnowski, 2021-06-15. Top 10 Pick for Learning Ladders Best Books for Educators Summer 2021. A groundbreaking guide to improve teaching based on the latest research in neuroscience from the bestselling author of A Mind for Numbers. Neuroscientists and cognitive scientists have made enormous strides in understanding the brain and how we learn, but little of that insight has filtered down to the way teachers teach. Uncommon Sense Teaching applies this research to the classroom for teachers, parents, and anyone interested in improving education. Topics include keeping students motivated and engaged, especially with online learning; helping students remember information long term so it isn't immediately forgotten after a test; how to teach inclusively in a diverse classroom where students have a wide range of abilities. Drawing on research findings as well as the authors' combined decades of experience in the classroom, Uncommon Sense Teaching equips readers with the tools to enhance their teaching, whether they're seasoned professionals or parents trying to offer extra support for their children's education. Resources in Education, 2001. Music, Technology, and Education Andrew King, Evangelos Himonides, 2016-06-10. The use of technology in music and education can no longer be described as a recent development. Music learners actively engage with technology in their music making regardless of the opportunities afforded to them in formal settings. This volume draws together critical perspectives in three overarching areas in which technology is used to support music education: music production, game technology, musical creation, experience, and understanding. The fourteen chapters reflect the emerging field of the study of technology in music from a pedagogical perspective. Contributions come not only from music pedagogues but also from musicologists, composers, and performers working at the forefront of the domain. The authors examine pedagogical practice in the recording studio, how game technology relates to musical creation and expression, the use of technology to create and assess musical compositions and how technology can foster learning within the field of Special Educational Needs SEN In addition the use of technology in musical performance is examined with a particular focus on the current trends and the ways it might be reshaped for use within performance practice This book will be of value to educators practitioners musicologists composers and performers as well as to scholars with an interest in the critical study of how technology is used effectively in music and music education Working Within Diversity Myira Khan,2023-07-21 In this reflective guide Myira Khan tackles what it means to work within diversity as a therapist to actively reflect on your own identity and experiences and how they affect the therapeutic relationships between you and your clients Presenting a model of anti oppressive practice the book examines topics such as power and privilege cultural humility and how professionals can work to remove barriers to counselling and therapy It focuses specifically on race ethnicity and faith while also considering the implications of intersectional identities The workbook elements of this book encourage self reflection and the implementation of new ideas within the therapeutic process There is an emphasis on practical application throughout the book and it will inspire readers to consider what working within diversity and working cross culturally really looks like in the therapy room itself

Person-Centred Counselling Training Dave Mearns,1997-11-28 This thoughtful and thought provoking book is essential reading not only for those involved in the training of counsellors within the person centred approach but also for individuals who may have simplistic dismissive or otherwise ill informed notions of the depth of self awareness required of the person centred practitioner and the far reaching challenges offered by the approach For counsellors who define themselves as person centred but who have had no substantial training it should be compulsory reading British Journal of Guidance and Counselling Person centred counselling probably requires more training and a greater intensity of training than most other mainstream counselling approaches but Your Child's Weight Ellyn Satter,2011-12-01 As much about parenting as feeding this latest release from renowned childhood feeding expert Ellyn Satter considers the overweight child issue in a new way Combining scientific research with inspiring anecdotes from her decades of clinical practice Satter challenges the conventional belief that parents must get overweight children to eat less and exercise more In the long run she says making them go hungry and forcing them to be active makes children preoccupied with food prone to overeating turned off to activity and likely to gain too much weight Trust is a central theme here children must be able to trust parents to provide as much food as they need to satisfy their appetites parents must trust children to eat only as much as they need Satter provides compelling evidence that if parents do their jobs with respect to feeding children are remarkably capable of knowing how much to eat The Latino Student's Guide to STEM Careers Laura I. Rendón,Vijay Kanagala,2017-09-08 This book is an essential resource that Latino students and families need to make the best decisions about entering and succeeding in a STEM career It can also serve to aid faculty counselors and advisors to assist students at every step of entering and completing a STEM career As a fast growing major segment of the U S population the next generation of Latinos and Latinas could be key to future American advances in science and technology With the appropriate encouragement for Latinos as to enter science technology engineering and mathematics STEM careers they can become the creative innovators who will produce technological advances we all need and can enjoy from faster tech devices to more energy efficient transportation to cures for diseases and medical conditions This book presents a compelling case that the nation s Hispanic population must be better represented in STEM careers and that the future of America s technological advances may well depend on the Latino a population It focuses on the importance of STEM education for Latinos as and provides a comprehensive array of the most current information students and families need to make informed decisions about entering and succeeding in a STEM career Students families and educators will fully understand why STEM is so important for Latinos as how to plan for a career in STEM how to pay for and succeed in college and how to choose a career in STEM The book also includes compelling testimonials of Latino a students who have completed a STEM major that offer proof that Latinos as can overcome life challenges to succeed in STEM fields

Practical Counselling and Helping Skills Richard Nelson-Jones,2013-11-14 This sixth edition provides a step by step guide to using counselling and helping skills with confidence and proficiency The author s three stage model of counselling relating understanding and changing is designed to facilitate developing lifeskills in clients and to help them to change how they feel think communicate and act It includes new chapters on Technology mediated counselling and helping with updated research and references throughout Using practical activities and case examples the book takes you beyond the basics to more advanced skills making it an essential companion for all counselling skills courses Richard Nelson Jones has many years experience as a counsellor trainer and psychotherapist His books have helped train thousands of counsellors and helpers worldwide He is a Fellow of the British and Australian Psychological Societies and of the British Association for Counselling and Psychotherapy
