Baldwin, 2020-01-03 Clad in Light By Linda L Baldwin In this second part of the novel Clad in Light all the characters in the first part of the novel Even in Death encounter light in its entire spectrum both their visible and invisible capacities. They learn that without the light they could not be transformed into better people Light is easier to understand if we were to say love provides the means by which light changes our nature We can see light We can t see love When we see the characters in this novel clad in light it s another way of saying they are clad in love When our characters in this novel are clad in light they grow to realize that light has unified them with the nature of light and how it renews life with its practical nature What they quickly learn is that light has an impractical nature and will not tolerate an abuse of the use of the light that wants to contain itself in their being This leads to the startling realization that light is masking itself as love in its infinite indestructible nature that extends beyond the source of our light the sun Light leads them to know the deep nature of love if one were to doubt that love exists Jeremy G.
