Gordon Stretton, Black British Transoceanic Jazz Pioneer Michael Brocken, Jeff Daniels, 2018-09-15 This extensively researched text concerning the life and career of Liverpool born Black jazz musician Gordon Stretton not only contributes to the important debate concerning the transoceanic pathways of jazz during the 20th century but also suggests to the jazz fan and scholar alike that such pathways reaching as they also did across the Atlantic from Europe are actually part of a largely ignored therefore partially hidden history of 20th century jazz performance industry and influence The work also exists to contribute to a more complete picture of the significance of diaspora studies across the spectrum of popular music performance and to award to those Liverpool musicians who were not contributors to the city's musical visage post rock n roll a place in popular music history Gordon Stretton was a jazz pioneer in several senses he emerged from a poverty stricken racially marginalized upbringing in Liverpool to develop a popular music career emblematic of Black diasporan experience He was a child dancer and singer in the Lancashire Lads the troupe which was also part of a young Charlie Chaplin's development a well respected solo touring artist in the UK as The Natural Artistic Coon a chorister and musical director with the Jamaican Choral Union and having encountered syncopated music a jazz percussionist multi instrumentalist and vocalist not to mention a ground breaking bandleader All of these musical experiences took place through time on his own terms as he learnt his craft on the hoof via many different encounters with musical genres from Liverpool to London Paris Brussels Rio and Buenos Aires Gordon Stretton was truly a transoceanic jazz pioneer

Empower the People Theodore Walker, 2001-05 Here is a study in theological social ethics for North American black churches It aims to present a conception of liberty freedom and a liberating social ethic both relentlessly informed by a black churchly understanding of ourselves in relation to God There are two main questions How should we conceive of liberty freedom and What should contemporary black churches do in order to contribute to the continuing struggle for liberty Answers derive from consulting black church history black theology and the philosophy of black power Also the descriptions predictions and public policy prescriptions of liberal and black sociologies are evaluated from a black churchly perspective Rightly conceived liberty freedom includes comprehensive social economic political empowerment and righteous relations to God and others Accordingly we church folk should empower the people through an ethic of breaking bread The religious and social stakes are high Where bread is not broken Jesus is not recognized God is not served and the people are not free
