Luke's Characters in their Jewish World Jenny Read-Heimerdinger, 2024-08-22 Jenny Read Heimerdinger explores the characters of Luke Acts in order to situate them in the Jewish world to which they belong Through a close reading of the Greek text she argues that Luke emerges as a person thoroughly steeped in a Jewish view of Scripture familiar with a range of associated oral traditions and that taking account of the Jewish features allows new insights into the way that the author situates events and characters firmly within the history of Israel before the Church was a separate institution or religion Read Heimerdinger proposes that such a view of his work implies an addressee capable of understanding what he received and that one eminently qualified candidate is Theophilus the high priest in Jerusalem 37 41 and brother in law of Caiaphas The Jewish perspective of Luke s two volumes is more visible in forms of the text not used for modern translations notably that of Codex Bezae and the early versions which are rejected by the editors of the Greek New Testament on which translations are based Read Heimerdinger draws on the analysis of the variants of the Greek text analysed in her previous Luke in his Own Words 2022 in a manner more accessible to readers unfamiliar with Greek The variant readings make use of a sophisticated knowledge of Jewish exegetical techniques that would generally be discarded by later generations of Christians but which are increasingly being recognized by NT scholars in line with Jewish historical studies of Second Temple and Rabbinic Judaism Seeing the characters of Luke Acts through Theophilus eyes brings exciting insights and a fresh understanding of the author s message

Feasting in a Famine of the Word Mark W. Birkholz, Jacob Corzine, Jonathan Mumme, 2016-02-16 The Lord warns of a famine of hearing the word of the Lord Amos 8 11 Has this warning come to pass in our day There is no shortage of preachers but how often do they miss the mark in actually delivering the word of God to their hearers leaving them hungry The authors of these essays seek to equip preachers with resources to offer their hearers a rich feast from the word of the Lord Writing from a Lutheran perspective contributors from across the globe provide a fresh approach to preaching These authors represent seasoned pastors and professors as well as young scholars All are actively preaching and teaching God s word on a regular basis This book covers a wide range of topics relating to preaching from the scriptural background and hermeneutical issues to historical examples of notable preachers and also practical guides to crafting and delivering a sermon These essays will assist preachers in proclaiming God s word in a manner that provides a feast for those living in a famine stricken world Check out a review on Logia Online Review on the Pastoral Meanderings Blog Video Endorsement by LCMS President Matt Harrison Interview with Mark Birkholz and Jonathan Mumme with BookTalk on KUFO

a tree a flower a bird a shadow or the innuendo of faith or country whatever This book draws upon poems written some years ago mostly in the years 2009 and 2015 There are also a few current poems that insist themselves into the collection as they are accumulated in the current year s file As I revisit poems of years ago quite often the occasion presents itself to memory but not always so Sometimes that occasion is as if unnecessary and indeed almost in the way of the poem as it has come to be Revisiting is always a pleasure it becomes one of the spurs toward forming the collection itself Indeed it is the pleasure and the satisfaction in the book that brings it about Satisfaction is such a boon to life
