Gospel In Black And White Theological Resources For Racial Reconciliation:

The Gospel in Black and White Dennis L. Okholm, 1997-01-01 After signal victories of the civil rights movement in the sixties recent events have shown that the divide between black and white Americans remains alarmingly wide And as African and Euro Americans perhaps increasingly find themselves at odds politically and culturally Sunday morning worship dismayingly remains the most segregated hour of the week Yet Christians of both races affirm that the gospel calls them together that they at least should be one people of one Lord one faith one baptism In that spirit the incisive and challenging essays in this book consider what rigorous theological work can contribute to the noble and ongoing quest for racial reconciliation Some of the church s most exciting black and white thinkers are gathered here by editor Dennis Okholm to address issues of theological method hermeneutics soteriology ecclesiology and social ethics always with an eye to closing the gaping wound of racism and serving God s kingdom across color lines Race and Reconciliation John B.

Hatch, 2009-12-01 Hatch develops a robust rhetorical theory of reconciliation and applies it to contemporary national and global efforts to redress the racialized wounds and injustices created by slavery What emerges from this work is a profound vision for the prospects of meaningful reparation forgiveness and reconciliation in American race relations Reckoning with Race and Performing the Good News Vincent Bacote, 2020-11-30 The Good news is central to evangelical theology and the movement known as evangelicalism but the news has not always been good for minorities who inhabit evangelical communities and institutions in the United States Vincent Bacote argues a reckoning with questions of race is necessary for evangelical theology to help cultivate an evangelical movement more hospitable to minorities particularly African Americans Evangelicalism is here regarded not only a set of beliefs about the Bible Christ s work on the cross conversion and witness but also as a set of dispositions and postures that create openness to the concerns of minorities With a perpetually uneasy conscience Christians within the evangelical movement can cultivate a disposition ready to learn from the questions and contributions of minorities in evangelical spaces such as William Bentley and Carl Ellis A better evangelical theology is proposed as doctrines that yield actions that are truly good news for all Revelation Craig S. Keener, 2000 The NIV Application Commentary helps readers with the vital task of bringing the ancient message of the Bible into a contemporary context It gives preachers and teachers the tools ideas and insights they need to communicate God s Word with the same powerful impact it had when it was first written

Early Interracial Oneness Pentecostalism Talmadge L. French, 2014-07-02 Early Interracial Oneness Pentecostalism is a look at what is perhaps the least known chapter in the history of American Pentecostalism The study of the first thirty years of Oneness Pentecostalism 1901-31 is especially relevant due to its unparalleled interracial commitment to an all flesh all people counter cultural Pentecost This in depth study details the lives of its earliest primary architects including G T Haywood R C Lawson J J Frazee and E W Doak and the emergence of Oneness Pentecostalism and its flagship organization Pentecostal Assemblies of the World This is a one of a kind history of Pentecostalism through the lens of the Jesus Name movement and the interracial struggles of the period interlinking the significance of Charles Parham William Seymour and the Azusa Street revival COGIC the newly formed Assemblies of God and dozens of the earliest Oneness organizational bodies Exploration of the significance of the role of African American Indianapolis leader G T Haywood is central as are the development of the movement s key centers in the United States and the ultimate loss of interracial unity after more than thirty years These crucial events marked indelibly the U S the global missionary and the autochthonous expansion of Oneness Pentecostalism worldwide

Moral Pedagogies for Africa Theodros A. Teklu, 2021-09-03 This volume engages with issues of moral responsibility and multiethnic co existence in the context of contemporary Africa Post colonial African states are by and large ethnically diverse Constructively managing ethnic diversity however has always been a challenge to these states which often fail to be democratic and all inclusive As a result ethnic enmity and conflicts that obliterate bonds of togetherness between ethnic communities have been rampant throughout the continent In dialogue with Africa s cultural and religious assets this interdisciplinary multi authored book aims at articulating the need to interpret past and present ethnic hostilities in Africa and generating moral resources of togetherness to foster a social pedagogy of responsible cohabitation for Africans The chapters of this volume categorized into two parts are framed according to these two niches

For All Peoples Craig S. Keener, 2020-08-27 Given this unique locus of today s church this book takes us back to the foundational teachings of Jesus on missions the Great Commission Gospel of Matthew and the Messianic Commission Gospel of John Although these two passages are universal in grounding Christian mission Professor Keener wants to assure that the role of the Holy Spirit is central to Christian living and acting as God s witnesses Wonsuk Ma PhD Dean Distinguished Professor of Global Christianity College of Theology and Ministry Oral Roberts University Craig Keener one of the finest and most prolific NT scholars of our day has produced another gem For All Peoples A Biblical Theology of Missions in the Gospels and Acts blends together rich scholarly insights rooted in an unsurpassed knowledge of the first century world with an edifying and pastoral eye that is always focused on the radical nature of Jesus call to follow him in his redemptive mission Successive chapters illuminate the seminal contributions that Matthew Luke John and Paul make to a biblical theology of missions The final chapter rooted in the narrative of Acts appropriately ties together these themes by describing Paul s Macedonian vision as a call for the Church to take the gospel from its place of origin in Asia to the mission field of Europe After almost two millennia Keener reminds us just how relevant this call remains for the growing and vibrant churches of Asia today Robert P Menzies PhD Kunming China This is Craig Keener at his best thoroughly expositional and passionately missional Dave Johnson DMiss Managing Editor Asian Journal of Pentecostal Studies

There Is a Balm in Gilead Emmett G. Price III, 2022-05-31 This important work is an excerpt from the book A Time for Sorrow Recovering the Practice of Lament in the Life of the Church Hendrickson Publishers 2019 Following the murder of George Floyd in May 2020 many in the United States and around the world are crying out for justice for our

African American brothers and sisters Emmett G Price III director of the Institute for the Study of the Black Christian Experience at Gordon Conwell Theological Seminary offers this essay to inspire and challenge Christians around the world to join our hearts and our minds together as one to petition hear praise heal and be with God and with one another It is here in worship that we lament The communal need for lament is inherent to the human condition This chapter aims to challenge the church of the twenty first century to reimagine and reengage in the sacred practice of lament as a spiritual discipline not merely as an individual transactional practice to assuage traumatic moments but as one that displays our intentional love for each other It is our hope that this essay will cause the arc of justice to move at least one degree in the direction of liberty and justice for all

Blessed and Beautiful Lisa Washington Lamb, 2014-06-05 Colleges can do it Hospitals can do it Workplaces can do it Why does the church in the United States still find it so difficult to integrate across racial and ethnic divides In Blessed and Beautiful Lisa Lamb trains her sights on one often overlooked facet of forging life together the magnetic power of shared memories Those common narratives bind ethnic groups together and keep them apart This book explores the sociological and theological dimensions of social memory and considers the particularly powerful tool preaching could be for shaping individuals who are willing to risk remembering their people's past in church and for shaping churches capable of hearing those stories While keenly aware of the complex dynamics involved Lamb ultimately gives pastors and other church leaders a glimmer of hope as they seek to build reconciled communities of faith

Practices, Politics, and Performance Michael G. Cartwright, 2006-06-01 Drawing on the hermeneutical reflections of John Howard Yoder Stanley Hauerwas and Mikhail Bakhtin Cartwright challenges the way twentieth century American Protestants have engaged the problem of the use of scripture in Christian ethics and issues a summons for a new debate oriented by a communal approach to hermeneutics By analyzing particular ecclesial practices that stand within living traditions of Christianity the politics of scriptural interpretation can be identified along with the criteria for what a good performance of scripture should be This approach to the use of scripture in Christian ethics is displayed in historical discussions of two Christian practices through which scripture is read ecclesiologically the Eastern Orthodox liturgical celebration of the Eucharist and the Anabaptist practice of binding and loosing or the rule of Christ When American Protestants consider performances of scripture such as these alongside one another within more ecumenical contexts they begin to confront the ecclesiological problem with their attempts to use the Bible in Christian ethics the relative absence of constitutive ecclesial practices in American Protestant congregations that can provide moral orientation for their interpretations of Christian scripture

Tribe Sandra Mayes Unger, 2020-09-29 Tribe explores the issues of reciprocity in cross race and cross class relationships using stories narrative and sociological insights and perspectives derived from urban fieldwork and the author's own life The volume examines the social and structural barriers to the formation of these kinds of relationships as well as the transformations that can take place as these barriers are overcome Stories interviews and empirically driven narratives are interwoven with theory from the fields of adult education economics sociology ethics theology and history After exploring the barriers to the formation of these relationships and the potential of adults for learning new ways of thinking and being the book makes the case that there are communal and individual benefits to these relationships that far outweigh the difficulties in forming them The book is set up to answer the questions Why does it matter if all my friends look just like me and How do I leave behind a siloed existence to live a fully transformational and socially aware life

The Power of Stories Rev. Jacqueline J. Lewis, 2010-09-01 Most congregational leaders find it difficult to resist the dominant cultural expectation that different cultural and ethnic groups should stick to themselves especially when it comes to church But some congregational leaders have learned the secrets of breaking out of these expectations to bring together communities of faith that model God's radical inclusiveness What makes the difference Jacqui Lewis explains that it resides in the stories these leaders tell stories about who they themselves are and what the communities they lead are about These leaders are able to embrace the multiple complex stories within these diverse communities hearing in the many voices a particular echo of the living voice of the gospel In this book Lewis shares with the reader examples of congregational leaders who have successfully overcome the challenges of leading multicultural congregations and the lessons that can be learned from them Jacqueline J Lewis is Senior Minister for Vision Worship and the Arts at Middle Collegiate Church in New York
