sometimes seen as not real journalism There is now an urgent need for in depth exploration and contextualisation of this field with its increasing relevance for 21st century consumer cultures For the first time this book presents a wide range of studies which have engaged with the field of lifestyle journalism in order to outline the various political economic social and cultural tensions within it Taking a comparative view the collection includes studies covering four continents including countries such as Australia China Norway Denmark Singapore the UK and the USA While keeping the broader lifestyle field in mind the chapters focus on a variety of sub fields such as travel music food health fashion and personal technology journalism This volume provides a fascinating account of the different facets of lifestyle journalism and charts the way forward for a more sustained analysis of the field This book was originally published as a special issue of Journalism Practice
