Successful School Restructuring under NCLB: School Vignettes

Objective

Present vignettes of five schools that have formally restructured under NCLB and sufficiently raised academic outcomes to demonstrate AYP.

Guiding Questions

- What approach did the schools use to restructure?
- What if any role did the school leaders play in developing and implementing restructuring efforts?
- What if any role did external entities play in the restructuring effort (e.g., district, state department of education, or external consultants)?
- What if any additional resources did the schools obtain in order to restructure?
- What do internal and external actors credit for the successful restructuring?
- What if any barriers did the school have to overcome in order to successfully restructure?

School Selection

- Difficult to identify schools that have exited, no central data base
- Identified schools in AL, CA, IL, GA, MD, MT, NY, and TN

Next Steps

- Conduct interviews with personnel from central office and individual schools

Handbook of Clinical Child Psychology C. Eugene Walker, Michael C. Roberts, 2001-01-30 The increasing focus on children's welfare has given rise to tremendous growth in the field of child psychology and the past decade has witnessed significant advances in research in this area Strengths-Based School Counseling John P. Galassi, 2017-07-05 Despite calls for a more preventive and developmental mode of functioning school counseling has tended to be driven by a reactive and sometimes crisis orientation Like social workers and school counseling and clinical psychologists school counselors typically function to alleviate deficits often in a small percentage of the students they serve Although this orientation has served school counselors well in many instances it is not empowering it does not serve all students and it does not replace those deficits with the type of positive characteristics and abilities that schools are attempting to develop This is the first book to provide a comprehensive look at the theory research and intervention strategies that comprise a strengths based developmental approach to school counseling In keeping with ASCA recommendations the Strengths Based School Counseling SBSC framework discusses academic personal social and career development outcomes for all students at the elementary middle and secondary school levels Other key features include integrative framework SBSC builds upon contemporary research from a variety of areas school counseling developmental psychology school psychology education positive psychology resiliency and social work evidence based interventions detailed examples of successful evidence based interventions and environments are presented at the elementary middle and high school levels for each major developmental area academic personal social and career identified in ASCA s National Model readability and pedagogy beautifully written the text includes lists of key points tables of student strengths illustrative examples and student exercises The Next Generation of Citizens ,2001 Proceedings of the Annual Meeting - Soil Conservation Society of America Soil Conservation Society of America,1975 Environmental Education; Strategies Toward a More Livable Future James A.
