Esclavitud y economía en la antigua Roma Stanford Mc Krause, La antigua Roma era una economía agraria y esclavista cuya principal preocupación era alimentar a la gran cantidad de ciudadanos y legionarios que poblaban la región mediterránea. Los esclavos eran considerados propiedad bajo la ley romana y no tenían personalidad jurídica. Podrían ser sometidos a castigos corporales, explotación sexual, las prostitutas a menudo eran esclavas, tortura y ejecución sumaria. Con el tiempo sin embargo los esclavos obtuvieron una mayor protección legal incluido el derecho a presentar quejas contra sus amos. Tebes, 2008-07-15 This book investigates the socioeconomic structure of the Negev the arid periphery located in the south of the modern state of Israel in the Late Bronze and Early Iron Ages ca 1300-586 B.C. During the first millennium B.C. the Negev passed through a series of socio-political and economic fluctuations inextricably related to changes occurring in the Iron Age world system. A world system perspective demonstrates that the local essentially tribal society evolved through a series of phases of chiefdom formation and posterior dissolution. Interrelated political events and economic factors that had long lasting impact on the autochthonous tribal groups need to be seen under the light of these systemic interactions. The main cause that triggered the local chain of events were the unequal exchange relations between the contemporaneous states particularly pharaonic Egypt and Assyria but also tiny Levantine states such as Judah and the Negev tribal organizations.
