The Global Coffee Economy in Africa, Asia, and Latin America, 1500-1989 William Gervase Clarence-Smith,Steven Topik,2003-06-16 Coffee beans grown in Brazil Colombia Vietnam or one of the other hundred producing lands on five continents remain a palpable and long standing manifestation of globalization For five hundred years coffee has been grown in tropical countries for consumption in temperate regions This 2003 volume brings together scholars from nine countries who study coffee markets and societies over the last five centuries in fourteen countries on four continents and across the Indian and Pacific Oceans with a special emphasis on the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries The chapters analyse the creation and function of commodity labour and financial markets the role of race ethnicity gender and class in the formation of coffee societies the interaction between technology and ecology and the impact of colonial powers nationalist regimes and the forces of the world economy in the forging of economic development and political democracy      The Trouble with Africa Robert Calderisi,2006-03-07 Publisher description      African Women and Children Apollo Rwomire,2001-03-30 Although research on the roles and status of women and children in Africa has expanded over the past two decades there is still a lack of comprehensive reality based and sophisticated analyses and documentation of the important issues and debates in this area This collection of original and thought provoking essays remedies these shortcomings by providing an eclectic informed and contextualized account of the nature and consequences of the oppression and abuse of women and children in Africa In addition it provides a critical review of a broad range of policies and interventions that are being pursued by statutory and non governmental organizations to improve the quality of life of these two groups Based on survey data case studies literature reviews and firsthand accounts this collection brings together some of the most significant new contributions to our understanding of how and why African women and children are oppressed by society The contributors to this volume consist of a well known team of scholars from the social sciences and humanities who are mostly citizens of several sub Saharan countries Together their lively contributions cover a wide range of topics including a comparative critique of females and gender status traditional institutions and violation of women s human rights and unequal access to power In addition the contributors examine constraints upon women s participation in politics the feminization of poverty prostitution patriarchy and marriage the inadequacy of gender neutral policies in housing delivery systems the impact of parental separation and divorce on children child abuse and child streetism      African Economic Development Steven Langdon,Archibald R.M. Ritter,Yiagadeesen Samy,2018-03-05 Sub Saharan Africa is at a turning point The barriers to economic growth seen in the 1980 2000 era are disappearing and new optimism is spreading However difficult goals of eliminating poverty achieving equity and overcoming environmental threats continue This much needed and insightful textbook has been written to help us understand this combination of emerging improvements and significant challenges Opening with an analysis of the main theories relating to development in Sub Saharan Africa the book explores all the key issues including Human development Rapid urbanization Structural and gender dimensions Sustainable development and environmental issues and Africa s role in the world economy The authors use economic tools and concepts throughout in a way that makes them accessible to students without an economics background Readers are also aided by a wide range of case studies on the ground examples and statistical information which provide a detailed analysis of each topic This text is also accompanied by an e resource featuring additional sources for students and instructors African Economic Development is a clear and comprehensive textbook suitable for courses on African economic development development economics African studies and development studies

Contemporary India and South Africa Sujata Patel,Tina Uys,2013-11-12 This book deals with the legacies of the Indian experiences of migration and diaspora in South Africa It highlights the social imaginaries of the migrants and citizens as they negotiate between a reconstructed notion of India and their real present and future in the country of citizenship Both South Africa and India have had a long history of group based identity movements against exploitation around caste and race intersecting with class gender language religion and region The combined history has allowed them to participate in novel ways in the global arena as regional powers The book suggests that the question of identity concerns itself with exploitation and oppression of excluded groups in both countries The authors are particularly attentive to the manner in which the two democratic states have confronted the challenges of history together with contemporary demands of inclusion and discuss the dilemmas involved in resolving them The volume also raises questions regarding future roles especially in the fields of education and the environment It will be of interest to those in the fields of sociology political science international relations history migration and diaspora studies as well as to the general reader

To Cook a Continent Nnimmo Bassey,2012 Arguing that the climate crisis confronting the world today is rooted mainly in the wealthy economies abuse of fossil fuels indigenous forests and global commercial agriculture this important book investigates how Africa has been exploited and how Africans should respond for the good of all As it examines the oil industry in Africa and probes the causes of global warming this record warns of its insidious impacts and explores false solutions Demonstrating that the issues around natural resource exploitation corporate profiteering and climate change must be considered together if the planet is to be saved the book suggests how Africa can overcome the crises of environment and global warming      National 4 & 5 Modern Studies: World Powers and International Issues, Second Edition Frank Cooney, Gary Hughes, Pauline Kelly, 2019-04-29 Exam Board SQA Level National 5 Subject Modern Studies First Teaching September 2017 First Exam Summer 2018 This second edition comprehensively covers the changes made to the course content and prepares students to cope with the increased emphasis on knowledge and understanding in the new National 5 exam Analyses the USA China and South Africa Covers Development Issues in Africa and International Terrorism in depth      Encyclopedia of World Political Systems J. Denis Derbyshire, Ian Derbyshire, 2016-04-15 This comprehensive resource provides up to date political coverage of every country and political entity in the world today It incorporates all the major global and regional changes following the decolonization of Hong Kong in 1997 recent leadership changes in China and Russia the results of the Dayton Peace Accord the rise of the New Labor Party in the UK the 1999 elections in Israel and South Africa and the continued search for peace in the Middle East and Northern Ireland The economic crisis in Asia and the widespread growth of world nuclear powers are also covered      Understanding Global Cultures Martin J. Gannon, 2004 Understanding Global Cultures Third Edition presents the cultural metaphor as a method for understanding the cultural mindsets of a nation a cluster of nations and even of a continent This method involves identifying some phenomenon activity or institution of a culture that all or most of its members consider important and with which they identify closely Metaphors are not stereotypes rather they rely upon the features of one critical phenomenon of a culture to describe the entire culture The characteristics of the metaphor then become the basis for describing and understanding the essential features of the culture For example the Italians invented the opera and love it passionately Five key characteristics of the opera are the overture spectacle and pageantry voice externalization and the interaction between the lead singers and the chorus These features are used to describe Italy and its cultural mindset Thus the metaphor is a guide or map that helps such outsiders as students travelers and managers on short term and long term assignments understand quickly what members of a culture consider important      The West and China in Africa Alemayehu Mekonnen, 2015-11-13 The West and China in Africa Civilization without Justice is an outcome of Dr Alemayehu Mekonnen's personal intellectual struggle life experience and an attempt to understand Christ and his message within the cultural context of Africa The intellectual struggle has to do with the paradoxical reality of Africa's situation An attempt to reconcile the seemingly irreconcilable situation of Africa tests and stretches anyone's mind beyond limit According to archaeological and geological findings Africa is the first habitat of humanity and yet it is the least habitable place in the world today The continent is extremely rich with natural resources but it is known for poverty disease malnutrition and starvation As some Afro centric scholars argue Africa is the birthplace of world civilization and yet it is known for destruction Social instability is rampant coup d'etat and counter coup d'etat is common Displacement and the number of refugees are ever increasing As a person of African origin and now a US citizen Mekonnen was able to see realities objectively in the eyes of an African and American This book explores the myth and reality of Western Eastern and African dictators role in the history of Africa The Economist ,1920 Scarcity and

Democracy is the ability to participate freely and equally in the political and economic affairs of the country Americans have relied on philosophical pragmatism and on the impulse of political progressivism to express those creedal democratic values Achieving Democracy argues that in the last 30 years however by focusing on free markets and small government America has since lost its grasp on these crucial democratic values Economically the vast majority of Americans have been made worse off due to a historically unprecedented redistribution of wealth from the lower and middle classes to the top one percent Politically partisan gridlock has hampered efforts to seek fairer taxes responsive and effective regulation reliable health care and better education among other needs Achieving Democracy critiques the history of the last 30 years of neoliberal government in the United States and enables an understanding of the dynamic and changing nature of contemporary government and the future of the regulatory state Sidney A Shapiro and Joseph P Tomain demonstrate how lessons from the past can be applied today to regain essential democratic losses within the successful framework of a progressive government to ultimately construct a good society for all citizens Contemporary Authors Julie
