Pneuma and Realized Eschatology in the Book of Wisdom Matthew Edwards, 2012-08-15 The Book of Wisdom's understanding of Israel's history of contemporary politics and of the immortal fate of the persecuted sage can be understood to be part of one theological system This system integrates texts and concepts from Jewish Wisdom the biblical narratives of the patriarchs from Adam to Moses eschatological hope and apocalyptic language an understanding of the spirit of God in the enabling of prophets and leaders and most distinctively the Stoic concept of pneuma This last concept unites the biblical resources and allows Wisdom using eschatological language to speak of the ordering of the cosmos for the judgement for the wicked and the exaltation of God's people in the present age Matthew Edwards addresses first the question of the literary unity of Wisdom This is followed by an examination of the differing uses of the term pneuma within Wisdom that is as divine agent of salvation the means of the ordering the cosmos and the substance from which souls are composed The nature of personal salvation within Wisdom is also considered and shown to be an integral part of the understanding of the cosmos ordered for judgement and exaltation Finally this notion of the ordering of the cosmos and history for God's people is discussed with its consequences for Jewish life under contemporary Hellenistic and Roman rule      Gnosticism and the History of Religions David G. Robertson, 2021-08-12 Building on critical work in biblical studies which shows how a historically bounded heretical tradition called Gnosticism was invented this work focuses on the following stage in which it was essentialised into a sui generis universal category of religion At the same time it shows how Gnosticism became a religious self identifier with a number of sizable contemporary groups identifying as Gnostics today drawing on the same discourses This book provides a history of this problematic category and its relationship with scholarly and popular discourse on religion in the twentieth century It uses a critical historical method to show how and why Gnosis Gnostic and Gnosticism were taken up by specific groups and individuals practitioners and scholars at different times It shows how ideas about Gnosticism developed in late nineteenth and twentieth century scholarship drawing from continental phenomenology Jungian psychology and post Holocaust theology to be constructed as a perennial religious current based on special knowledge of the divine in a corrupt world David G Robertson challenges how scholars interact with the category Gnosticism and contributes to our understanding of the complex relationship between primary sources academics and practitioners in category formation
