Edith Et Marcel:

Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège, 2009-12-11 Cinema has been long associated with France dating back to 1895 when Louis and Auguste Lumi_re screened their works the first public viewing of films anywhere Early silent pioneers Georges Méliès Alice Guy Blaché and others followed in the footsteps of the Lumi_re brothers and the tradition of important filmmaking continued throughout the 20th century and beyond In Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège identifies every French director who has made at least one feature film since 1895 From undisputed masters to obscure one timers nearly 3 000 directors are cited here including at least 200 filmmakers not mentioned in similar books published in France Each director's entry contains a brief biographical summary including dates and places of birth and death information on the individual's education and professional training and other pertinent details such as real names when the filmmaker uses a pseudonym The entries also provide complete filmographies including credits for feature films shorts documentaries and television work Some of the most important names in the history of film can be found in this encyclopedia from masters of the Golden Age_Jean Renoir and René Clair_to French New Wave artists such as François Truffaut and Jean Luc Godard No Regrets Carolyn Burke, 2011-03-22 The iconic French singer comes to life in this enthralling definitive biography which captures Edith Piaf's immense charisma along with the time and place that gave rise to her unprecedented international career Raised by turns in a brothel a circus caravan and a working class Paris neighborhood Piaf began singing on the city's streets where she was discovered by a Champs Elysées cabaret owner She became a star almost overnight seducing Paris's elite and the people of its slums in equal measure with her powerful passionate voice No Regrets explores her rise to fame and notoriety her tumultuous love affairs and her struggles with drugs alcohol and illness while also drawing on new sources to enhance our knowledge of little known aspects of her life Piaf was an unlikely student of poetry and philosophy who aided Resistance efforts in World War II wrote the lyrics for nearly one hundred songs including La Vie en rose and was a crucial mentor to younger singers including Yves Montand and Charles Aznavour who absorbed her love of chanson and her exacting approach to their métier Here is Piaf in her own world Paris in the first half of the twentieth century and in ours Burke demonstrates how with her courage her incomparable art and her universal appeal the little sparrow endures as a symbol of France and a source of inspiration to entertainers worldwide

Films and Filming, 1985 Boxing and the Mob Jeffrey Sussman, 2019-05-08 More than any other sport boxing has a history of being easy to rig There are only two athletes and one or both may be induced to accept a bribe if not the fighters then the judges or referee might be swayed In such inviting circumstances the mob moved into boxing in the 1930s and profited by corrupting a sport ripe for exploitation In Boxing and the Mob The Notorious History of the Sweet Science Jeffrey Sussman tells the story of the coercive and criminal underside of boxing covering nearly the entire twentieth century He profiles some of its most infamous characters such as Owney Madden Frankie Carbo and Frank Palermo and details many of the fixed matches in boxing's storied history In addition Sussman examines the influence of the mob on legendary boxers including Primo Carnera Sugar Ray Robinson Max Baer Carmen Basilio Sonny Liston and Jake LaMotta and whether they caved to the mobsters threats or refused to throw their fights Boxing and the Mob is the first book to cover a century of fixed fights paid off referees greedy managers misused boxers and the mobsters who controlled it all True crime and the world of boxing are intertwined with absorbing detail in this notorious piece of American history (Inter)racial Relationships as Accompaniment in Twenty-First Century African American Novels

E. Lâle Demirtürk, 2024-10-15 Inter racial Relationships as Accompaniment in Twenty First Century African American Novels explores the acts of accompaniment to disrupt the embodied discursive practices of whiteness and Black vulnerability as a way to change social relations across racial difference in the novels The novels analyzed in the book explore those Black male characters who work through the norms of whiteness in their relations with Black and white women while at the same time enacting the practices of accompaniment to subvert the embodied practices of whiteness At a time when there is the rise of interest in activist work such as the ongoing Black Lives Matter movement against the systems of white supremacy in the post Trump era these novels shape an understanding of Black characters struggle against discursive violence as a radical social praxis to transform the everyday life The book consists of four chapters on Kalisha Buckhanon's Speaking of Summer 2019 Kalisha Buckhanon's Upstate 2005 Ben Burgess Jr's Defining Moments Black and White 2020 and Walter Mosley's Every Man a King A King Oliver Novel 2023 While these novels depict a critique of racialized everyday life they interrogate whiteness as a political act of devaluation of Blackness and Black life by establishing relations through accompaniment The act as such stretches the boundary lines between who is the accompanier and the accompanied in shifting configurations of whiteness and blackness in the positioning of the vulnerable Edith Piaf, une vie vraie Pierre Pernez, 2013-09-18 Une fr le silhouette tout de noir

Popular Music Simon Frith, 2004 Popular music studies is a rapidly expanding field with changing emphases and agendas The music industry has changed in recent years as has governmental involvement in popular music schemes as part of the culture industry The distinction between the major record labels and the outsider independents has become blurred over time Popular music as part of this umbrella of the culture industry has been progressively globalized and globalizing The tensions within popular music are now no longer between national cultural identity and popular music but between the local and the global This four volume collection examines the changing status of popular music against this background Simon Frith examines the heritage of popular music and how technology has changed not only the production but the reception of this brand of sound The collection examines how the traditional genres of rock pop and soul have broken down and what has replaced them as well as showing how this proliferation of musical styles has also splintered the audience of popular music

Popular Music in France from Chanson to Techno Steve Cannon, 2017-07-05 In France during the 1960s and 1970s popular music became a key component of socio cultural modernisation as the music record industry became increasingly important in both economic and cultural terms in response to demographic changes and the rise of the modern media As France began questioning traditional ways of understanding politics and culture before and after May 1968 music as popular culture became an integral part of burgeoning media activity Press radio and television developed free from de Gaulle's state domination of information and political activism shifted its concerns to the use of regional languages and regional cultures including the safeguard of traditional popular music against the centralising tendencies of the Republican state The cultural and political significance of French music was again revealed in the 1990s as French language music became a highly visible example of France's quest to maintain her cultural exceptionalism in the face of the perceived globalising hegemony of English and US business and cultural imperialism Laws were passed instituting minimum quotas of French language music The 1980s and 1990s witnessed developing issues raised by new technologies as compact discs the minitel telematics system the internet and other innovations in radio and television broadcasting posed new challenges to musicians and the music industry These trends and developments are the subject of this volume of essays by leading scholars across a range of disciplines including French studies musicology cultural and media studies and film studies It constitutes the first attempt to provide a complete and up to date overview of the place of popular music in modern France and the reception of French popular music abroad

The TLA Film Video from This Is Spinal Tap to Ma Vie en Rose Music in Contemporary French Cinema Phil Powrie, 2017-06-29 This book explores composed scores and pre existing music in French cinema from 1985 to 2015 so as to identify critical musical moments It shows how heritage films construct space through music generating what Powrie calls third space music while also working to contain the strong women characters found in French heritage films through the use of leitmotifs and musical cues He analyses fiction films in which the protagonists perform at the piano showing how musical performance supports the performance of gender Building on aspects of musical performance and in particular the use of songs performed in films Powrie uses a database of 300 films since 2010 to theorize the intervention of music at critical moments as a crystal song Applying Roland Barthes s concept of the punctum and Gilles Deleuze s concept of the crystal image Powrie establishes the importance of the crystal song which reconfigures time as a crystallization of past present and future Taking Aviation to New Heights Jacqueline Cardinal, Laurent Lapierre, 2013-11-19 A fascinating biography of Pierre Jeannerot the man who was at the helm of Air Canada IATA and the aviation industry Taking Aviation to New Heights is a compelling case study of how a business man was born and went on to achieve financial success social status and political sway
