Education And The Idea Of Mankind:

Education and the Idea of Mankind Robert Ulich, 1968-03-01      A New Theory of Human Nature, with a correspondent system of Education: together with a Preface by Counsellor Baumgarten. Translated from the German [i.e. from the work of Friedrich Engel, entitled "Versuch einer Theorie von dem Menschen und dessen Erziehung"]. THEORY., 1755      Education and the Idea of Mankind Elliot W. Eisner,      The Dangerous Rise of Therapeutic Education Kathryn Ecclestone, Dennis Hayes, 2019-02-01

The Dangerous Rise of Therapeutic Education confronts the silent ascendancy of a therapeutic ethos across the educational system and into the workplace. Controversial and compelling, Kathryn Ecclestone and Dennis Hayes' classic text uses a wealth of examples across the education system from primary schools to university and the workplace to show how therapeutic education is turning children, young people, and adults into anxious and self-preoccupied individuals rather than aspiring, optimistic, and resilient learners who want to know everything about the world. Remaining extremely topical, the chapters illuminate the powerful effects of therapeutic education, including how therapeutic learning is taking shape now and in the future; how therapeutic ideas from popular culture have come to govern social thought and policies; how the fostering of dependence and compulsory participation in therapeutic activities that encourage the disclosing of emotions can undermine parents' and teachers' confidence and authority; how therapeutic forms of teacher training undermine faith in the pursuit of knowledge; how political initiatives in emotional literacy, emotional wellbeing, and positive mental health propagate a diminished view of human potential throughout the education system and the workplace. The Dangerous Rise of Therapeutic Education is an eye-opening read for every teacher and leader across the field of education and every parent and student who is passionate about the power of knowledge to transform people's lives. It is a call for a debate about the growing impact of therapeutic education and what it means for learning now and in the future.

Education the birthright of every human being, and the only Scriptural preparation for the Millennium Benjamin Parsons, 1845      Nordic Perspectives on Human Rights Education Audrey Osler, Beate Goldschmidt-Gjerløw, 2024-07-29

Backed by a range of case studies and recent developments in human rights education research, Nordic Perspectives on Human Rights Education guides readers through an analysis of educational inequities and identifies how internationally agreed-upon human rights standards may inform social justice practices within schools. In an age characterised by authoritarianism and extremism but also social and climate justice movements, this book provides a critical analysis of current practice within schools. Contributing authors also discuss how a human rights framework may improve practice, supporting intersectional thinking and more sustainable learning environments while also empowering teachers to confidently navigate issues of gender, national identity, and minority rights. Divided into three distinct sections, chapters invite readers to consider the context behind human rights education, HRE rights-based approaches to teaching and education, international dialogue, and how we may learn from the approaches of other countries. Drawing on research from the Nordic region and discussing its implications elsewhere this volume is an essential resource for scholars developing theory and practice in human rights education social studies citizenship education and international and comparative education Chapter 2 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution CC BY 4.0 license Chapters 1 6 7 9 12 and 13 of this book are freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license American Education, 1978 Discourses of Human Rights

Education Joseph Zajda, Yvonne Vissing, 2025-05-30 This book examines critically major issues confronting human rights implementation in schools both locally and globally It analyzes the challenges that different societies are confronted with as they attempt to implement protect and defend democracy cultural diversity and human rights in schools The book also documents human rights challenges that result from the increased cultural diversity that occurs in a more mobile and globalized world By examining education policy shifts in the use of the major discourses in human rights and education the book offers a comprehensive synthesis of the intersecting and diverse discourses of globalisation cultural diversity human rights and education It also provides innovative ideas concerning the future directions for authentic models of globalisation human rights and education

Farenga, Daniel Ness, 2015-07-17 This comprehensive and exhaustive reference work on the subject of education from the primary grades through higher education combines educational theory with practice making it a unique contribution to the educational reference market Issues related to human development and learning are examined by individuals whose specializations are in diverse areas including education psychology sociology philosophy law and medicine The book focuses on important themes in education and human development Authors consider each entry from the perspective of its social and political conditions as well as historical underpinnings The book also explores the people whose contributions have played a seminal role in the shaping of educational ideas institutions and organizations and includes entries on these institutions and organizations This work integrates numerous theoretical frameworks with field based applications from many areas in educational research

Education and the Idea of Mankind Louis Hartz, 1964 Reflecting on and with the 'More-than-Human' in Education Fred Dervin, Mei Yuan, 2022-11-10 This book examines today's central and yet often misunderstood and misconstrued notion of interculturality It specifically focuses on one aspect of intercultural awareness that has been ignored in research and education the presence and influence of things on the way we experience do and reflect on interculturality This book provides the readers with opportunities to engage with interculturality by reflecting on how our lives are full of things and entangled with them It urges teachers teacher educators scholars and students to open their eyes to the richness that the more than human with which we can reflect has to offer for intercultural communication education

preservation of the social political and cultural autonomies of peoples within diverse cultural contexts Al Daraweesh and Snauwaert propose a relational epistemology for human rights education      Education, Equality and Human Rights

Mike Cole,2002-11-01 First published in 2000 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company      Education as Human Knowledge in the Anthropocene Christoph Wulf,2022-03-27 This book examines the concepts of the Anthropocene and globalisation in our society and the changes that these are bringing about in education and human learning The book argues that there needs to be reflexive approach to issues that affect the fate of the planet and the future of humans brought about by an education that looks to the future Wulf argues that a change in education and socialization can only succeed based on an understanding of previous educational ideas and considers the significance of Confucianism and spiritual education that emerged in the East The book traces key educational ideas throughout history to show how education and human knowledge are closely linked highlighting the need for us to pay careful attention to repetition mimesis and the imagination in learning It shows how a future oriented education must engage with issues of peace and violence global citizenship and sustainable development This timely and compelling book will be of great interest to researchers academics and students in the fields of philosophy of education the history and anthropology of education sustainability education and global citizenship education      Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, Education, and Related Agencies Appropriations for 2000 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on the Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, Education, and Related Agencies,1999      Educating Toward a Culture of Peace

Yaacov Iram,2006-06-01 This volume on Education towards a Culture of Peace is a timely undertaking since the United Nations has proclaimed the years 2001 2010 as the International Decade for a Culture of Peace and Non Violence for the Children of the World A culture of peace as defined by the UN is a set of values attitudes modes of behaviour and ways of life that reject violence and prevent conflicts by tackling their root causes to solve problems through dialogue and negotiation among individuals groups and nations UN Resolutions A RES 52 13 1998 Culture of Peace and A RES 53 243 1999

Declaration and Programme of Action on a Culture of Peace Most of the chapters in this book are based on lectures that were presented at the International Conference Education towards a Culture of Peace This conference was convened on 1 3 December 2003 by the The Josef Burg Chair in Education for Human Values Tolerance and Peace UNESCO Chair on Human Rights Democracy Peace and Tolerance School of Education at Bar Ilan University Israel This conference was held under the auspices of Israel National Commission for UNESCO and supported also by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs Jerusalem The office of Public Affairs of the US Embassy Tel Aviv Fulbright United States Israel Educational Foundation      Human Rights Educ & Global R James Lynch,Celia Modgil,Sohan Modgil,2014-07-10 First published in 1992 This is Volume 4 of a series of four on Cultural Diversity and the Schools and focusses on Human Rights Education and Global Responsibilities One of the major problems facing societies in almost all parts of the world is the inadequate accommodation of social equity with cultural diversity The crisis emanating from neglect of this issue can be seen in societies as different and wide apart as the Soviet Union India Pakistan the United States and the United Kingdom This series seeks to contribute through joint publication and the stimulation of greater discourse to identify the pathways to a less selfish and parochial response to the continuing dilemma of equity and diversity not solely within the nation state but also internationally

Competence Based Education and Training (CBET) and the End of Human Learning John Preston, 2017-05-04 This book radically counters the optimism sparked by Competence Based Education and Training an educational philosophy that has re-emerged in Schooling Vocational and Higher Education in the last decade CBET supposedly offers a new type of learning that will lead to skilled employment here Preston instead presents the competency movement as one which makes the concept of human learning redundant Starting with its origins in Taylorism the slaughterhouse and radical behaviourism the book charts the history of competency education to its position as a global phenomenon today arguing that competency is opposed to ideas of process causality and analog human movement that are fundamental to human learning
