Seven Curricular Landscapes Clifford Mayes, 2003 Seven Curricular Landscapes offers a holistic presentation and critique of what the author considers to be the seven major types of curricula This book which is suitable for both upper division and graduate education courses differs from previous holistic approaches in that it closely considers the holistic implications of postmodernism adds new categories and terms to the holistic repertoire includes the latest developments in transpersonal theory examines the Existentialist curriculum as a spiritual phenomenon and discusses the curricular implications of both Eastern and Western spirituality      Women in Storytelling Afra Kavanagh,2000      Making Sense of Adult Learning Dorothy MacKeracher,2004-11-01 Learning is an inseparable part of human experience Understanding how adults learn and applying that expertise to practical everyday situations and relationships opens the window on a broader understanding of the capacity of the human mind Dorothy MacKeracher's Making Sense of Adult Learning was first published in 1996 and was acclaimed for its readability and value as a reference tool For the second edition of this essential work MacKeracher has reorganized and revised many of the chapters to bring the text up to date for contemporary use Concepts are presented from learning centred and learner centred perspectives while related learning and teaching principles provide ideas about how one may enable others to learn more effectively Written for people preparing to become adult educators Making Sense of Adult Learning provides background information about the nature of adult learning and the characteristics that typify adult learners This new edition will be quick to assert its place as the premier guide in the field      Education and the Soul John P. Miller,2000-01-01 With emphasis on preparing students for jobs standards and achievement testing many think that North American education has become inwardly deadening yet this book provides a counterbalance as it offers a way to nurture the soul in classrooms and schools      The Developing Person Through the Life Span Kathleen Stassen Berger,2005 The Developing Person Through the Life Span Sixth Edition presents theory research practical examples and policy issues in a way that inspires students to think about human development and about the individual's role in the community and the world Review the new edition and you'll find Berger's signature strengths on display the perceptive analysis of current research the lively and personal writing style and the unmistakable commitment to students You'll also find a wealth of new topics plus a video based Media Tool Kit that takes the teaching and learning of human development to a new level      Teaching and Learning for Wholeness Clifford Mayes,2016-12-08 In Teaching for Wholeness Clifford Mayes continues to expand the horizons of Jungian pedagogy a movement that draws upon the thought of Carl Jung and Jungian scholars to address crucial educational issues and define new ones Mayes leads readers through an analysis of Freudian and post Freudian psychology in educational theory and practice an examination of the epistemological foundations of Jungian thought and a demonstration of how Jungian psychology can uniquely help teachers reflect deeply upon their roles as educators Mayes also explores Jung's view of symbolism and its implications for curriculum and the Jungian idea of the shadow as the launching point for an examination of education as reclamation of the soul before concluding with the case for individuation as the proper goal of education      Nurturing the Whole Student Clifford Mayes, Ellen Williams,2012-11-06 Nurturing the Whole Student Five Dimensions of Teaching and Learning begins with the assumption that education is at its best healthiest most engaging and most effective when it is holistic By holistic the authors mean that the various dimensions of the teacher and student are honored and nurtured throughout the education process These dimensions are organic psychodynamic cultural academic and existential Nurturing the Whole Student contends that any truly humane educational theory or practice must celebrate and cultivate these facets of the student teacher relationship In readily accessible theoretical terms as well as in practical suggestions for classroom application the authors demonstrate how holistic education is an antidote to the standardized approaches to education that breed failure alienation and discouragement in the classroom Systematically broken down into five thematic chapters this teacher s guide will help any educator foster the five dimensions of teaching and learning

Psychology Express: Educational Psychology (Undergraduate Revision Guide) Penney Upton,Charlotte Elizabeth Taylor,2014-02-19 The Psychology Express undergraduate revision guide series will help you understand key concepts quickly revise effectively and make your answers stand out The Developing Person Through Childhood and Adolescence Kathleen Stassen Berger,2008-10-30 Check out a preview Edition after edition Berger s highly praised bestselling text opens students eyes to the ways children grow and the ways that growth is investigated and interpreted by developmentalists Staying true to the hallmarks that have defined Berger s vision from the outset the Eighth Edition again redefines excellence in a child development textbook combining thoughtful interpretations of the latest science with new skill building pedagogy and media tools that can revolutionize classroom and study time The Legacy of Katharine Hepburn: Fine Art as a Way of Life Maryann Pasda DiEdwardo,2008 THE LEGACY OF KATHARINE HEPBURN Fine Art as a Way of Life Maryann Pasda DiEdwardo Memoir The legacy of the late Katharine Hepburn undeniably benefits a twenty first century audience because Kate identifies the artistic spirit As one of the most important women of the twentieth century Hepburn was an artist who exemplified the independent character freedom and opportunity available to women as paramount whether she was on stage or in film As the late Hepburn she has become a living art spirit with a legacy that acts as a shining example Teaching Peace through Transformative Literature and Metaethics Maryann P. DiEdwardo,2023-06-14 This book is about content driven lectures panels round tables seminars and workshops aiming to improve learning communities and academic literature skills It advocates teaching peace through transformative literary works DiEdwardo gives her readers her original poetry critiques of fiction and film as well as an exploration of peace studies to facilitate a concentration on curiosity solitude and self development through writing

Provenzo, Jr.,2014-05-01 This special issue calls for a greater awareness of computing as a critical area of study for those interested in educational studies Its purpose is to open up a wider dialogue about computing and education than has previously existed in the field The questions raised provide the basis for a lively discussion and analysis of the role of educational studies in interpreting the role of computing in our culture and educational system This issue also provides a model for exploring other topics of similar significance and importance to the field in future issues

Non-Western Educational Traditions Timothy G. Reagan, 2004-09-22 This text provides a brief yet comprehensive overview of a number of non Western approaches to educational thought and practice Its premise is that understanding the ways that other people educate their children as well as what counts for them as education may help us think more clearly about some of our own assumptions and values and to become more open to alternative viewpoints about important educational matters The value of this informative mind opening text for preservice and in service teacher education courses is enhanced by Questions for Discussion and Reflection and Recommended Further Readings included in each chapter New in the Third Edition Chapter 2 Conceptualizing Culture I We and The Other is new to this edition It is a response to feedback about the problems inherent in our general discourse about culture and in addition provides an example of a culture that is near to us but nevertheless alien the culture of the Deaf World Chapter 9 which deals with Islam and traditional Muslim education has been substantially revised The subtitle of the Third Edition has been changed to Indigenous Approaches to Educational Thought and Practice reflecting not so much a change in the emphases found in the book but rather a recognition of the growing scholarly interest in indigenous peoples their languages cultures and histories Various points throughout the text have been expanded and clarified and chapters have been updated as needed

Climate Change across the Curriculum Eric J. Fretz, 2015-12-24 Climate Change across the Curriculum examines ways of thinking and conveying information about climate change across university curricula and within academic disciplines The contributors provide methods strategies rationales and theoretical justifications for teaching climate issues at the university level The content of this book aims to introduce climate change to classes outside of the sciences as it will take a wide range of disciplines broader institutional thinking and experimentation to fully engage university resources and knowledge toward the mitigation of fossil fuel consumption and adaptation to the negative consequences of climate change Climate Change across the Curriculum encourages professors to engage salient aspects of their academic disciplines to the study of climate issues in the classroom as well as sample theories practices and resources from a wide range of academic disciplines outside of their own areas of specialization The contributors ask what role will higher education play in addressing environmental challenges and producing students who become professionals who accomplish work that solves these problems

Non-Western Educational Traditions Timothy Reagan, 2017-07-06 Indigenous Knowledge Systems Concluding Reflections Questions for Reflection and Discussion Author Index Subject Index

Understanding the Whole Student Clifford Mayes, Ramona Maile Cutri, Neil Goslin, Fidel Montero, 2016-03-03 Understanding the Whole Student presents a holistic approach to multicultural educational issues by viewing them in terms of the student as a physical psychosocial cognitive ethical and spiritual being Conversely these levels of a student s being cannot be seen apart from the student s cultural identities This unique book demonstrates that in a pluralistic democracy good teaching and deep learning must be multicultural and must look at the student as a whole being not just as a future worker in a transnational corporate economy as is currently the case with both neo liberal and neo conservative programs for reform The authors contend that good education is and must be multicultural in order to gain a deeper perspective on issues under analysis in the classroom through the sharing and negotiating of many different cultural perspectives
