A Good Man in Africa William Boyd, 2011-07-06 In the small African republic of Kinjania British diplomat Morgan Leafy bumbles heavily through his job His love of women his fondness for drink and his loathing for the country prove formidable obstacles on his road to any kind of success But when he becomes an operative in Operation Kingpin and is charged with monitoring the front runner in Kinjania's national elections Morgan senses an opportunity to achieve real professional recognition and more importantly reassignment After he finds himself being blackmailed diagnosed with a venereal disease attempting bribery and confounded with a dead body Morgan realizes that very little is going according to plan Novels of William Boyd Dr. Rajesh Shashikant Latane, 2015-02-25 have great pleasure in writing this foreword to Dr Latane's book on the Novels of William Boyd The book is a significant contribution to Boyd criticism It has discussed the early the middle and the last phase of Boyd's novels In doing if the author has defined the totality of Boyd's vision Indeed every novel is a part of this totality and the totality is more than a mere sum of the novels The reciprocal relationship between the part and the whole is the crux of novel criticism and the book has given due justice to this aspect Another important feature of the book is the analysis of the postmodernist element in Boyd's novels This critical framework can be used to analysis the postmodernist element in the contemporary Indian novel in English Even going further it can be used to analyse the Postmodernist element in the contemporary Marathi novel A thesis is really acknowledged when it become a source material for the future researchers and comparatives Mr Latane's book has that potential I heartily wish a good reception to the book Dr Prakash Deshpande Kejkar Former Professor of English Shivaji University Kolhapur Cable Vision, 1995 TLA Film, Video, and DVD Guide 2002-2003 David Bleiler, 2001-11-03 A film video and DVD guide for the true lover of the cinema this transnational character in reaction to the retreat of the state and the political activism of transnational migrant communities. The argument is illustrated with in depth case studies of contemporary environmental social movements in Turkey and Lithuania.

De-neocolonizing Africa Unwana Samuel Akpan, 2024-10-16 This book fills a critical void in African research a lack of engagement with the question of how digital capabilities can be harnessed to liberate Africa from the subtle grips of neocolonization. Bringing together seasoned and emerging scholars from diverse regions of Africa the book dissects the intricate relationship between technology and the persistent echoes of colonial legacies. The authors distinguish between decolonization the historical struggle for independence and the ongoing imperative of de neocolonization an evolving battle against persistent but more subtle colonial influences now manifesting in the digital terrain. With a focus on the profound impact of digital tools the contributors question how these capabilities can serve as instruments of liberation in a globalized age. Through a comprehensive examination of the intersection between Africa digital technology and neocolonization the book not only breaks new ground but also positions itself as an invaluable resource for students academics and professionals globally. By offering fresh perspectives nuanced analyses and innovative solutions this book emerges as an essential addition to the global intellectual academe reshaping the discourse on African autonomy identity and emancipation from neocolonial chains.
