Great Medicine Road, Part 2 Will Bagley, 2015-10 During the early weeks of 1848 as U S congressmen debated the territorial status of California a Swiss immigrant and an itinerant millwright forever altered the future state s fate Building a sawmill for Johann August Sutter James Wilson Marshall struck gold The rest may be history but much of the story of what happened in the following year is told not in history books but in the letters diaries journals and other written recollections of those whom the California gold rush drew west In this second installment in the projected four part collection The Great Medicine Road Narratives of the Oregon California and Mormon Trails the hardy souls who made the arduous trip tell their stories in their own words Seven individuals tales bring to life a long ago year that enriched some impoverished others and forever changed the face of North America Responding to often misleading promotional literature adventurers made their way west via different routes Following the Carson River through the Sierra Nevada or taking the Lassen Route to the Sacramento Valley they passed through the Mormon Zion of Great Salt Lake City and traded with and often displaced Native Americans long familiar with the trails Their accounts detail these encounters as well as the gritty realities of everyday life on the overland trails They narrate events describe the vast and diverse landscapes they pass through and document a journey as strange and new to them as it is to many readers today Through these travelers diaries and memoirs readers can relive a critical moment in the remaking of the West and appreciate what a difference one year can make in the life of a nation

PULP FICTIONS No 7 Edited by Karin van Marle 2011 ISSN 1992 5174 Pages 40 Print version Available Electronic version Free PDF available About the publication In this edition of Pulp fictions two law students reflect on the issues taken up in the first edition of Pulp fictions in 2005 Joel Modiri and Emile Zitzke both second years in 2011 after reading the dialogue between Heyns and Van Marle last year as first year students coming into the faculty of law were prompted to revisit some of the issues raised Heyns and Van Marle s dialogue was in response to a decision of the Centre for Human Rights not to display a group of etchings by Diane Victor from her Disasters of Peace series in their offices and a subsequent decision of the University s management taken after the group of etchings had been moved to the Department of Public Law to remove two of the etchings that were found to be most offensive by a group of complainants including the then principal of the University Prof Calie Pistorius Six years after the removal of these art works Modiri and Zitzke bring fresh perspectives to the debate Added to this edition also is a musing by Prof Christof Heyns The original idea with Pulp fictions was to open spaces for discussion dialogue and dissent and opportunity for creativity experimentation and reimaginings Over the past 6 years colleagues from the UP Faculty of Law from other faculties in UP and from other universities have participated as have a judge of the Constitutional Court and an attorney This is the first edition in which students have entered these spaces We welcome this expansion and reiterate previous calls for more participation from the UP academic community and beyond growing into youth not yet a teenager but was bright enough to know his country was in a war that it mustn t lose that his brother and uncles were also part of this deadly struggle Melodious harmonies and helmets were heard and seen at the impromptu Christmas party his mum and dad had arranged He was as inquisitive as could be because it sounded like the Americans had arrived with Uncle Jim for the little house party he d eavesdropped about over the last few days Gosh a mighty he heard one over the pond voice exclaim You got gas lighting but no electricity in the house huh The front room was alive with noise generated by adults both seated and standing in a happy conversation Already a smoky fuzz was forming from lit cigarettes held firmly between thumbs and forefingers and used sometimes to emphasise a point or two in the friendly interchange of chit chat The first thing he noticed was one policeman s helmet and two American army white military police garrison caps grouped together at one end of his mum s upright piano top Railway policeman Uncle Jim was in boisterous good humour with the two Americans Suddenly his young eyes lit up as he spied a crumpled untidy mess of military equipment in the corner of the room which drew him onto it immediately He could see a US army belt with what looked like a brown wood baseball bat attached as well as a set of handcuffs King Henry IV, part 1. King Henry IV, part 2.
