

Good Morrow

I wonder, by my truth, what thou and I
Did, till we loved; were we not weaned till then,
But sucked on country pleasures, childishly?
Or snorted we in the Seven Sleepers' den?
'Twas so; but this, all pleasures fancies be.
If ever any beauty I did see,
Which I desired, and got, 'twas but a dream of thee.

And now good morrow to our waking souls,
Which watch not one another out of fear;
For love, all love of other sights controls,
And makes one little room, an everywhere.
Let sead discoveries to new worlds have gone,
Let maps to others, worlds on worlds have shown,
Let us possess our world; each hath one and is one.

My face in thine eye, thine in mine appears,
And true plain hearts do in the faces rest;
Where can we find two better hemispheres,
Without sharp North, without declining West?
Whatever dies, was not mixed equally;
If our two loves be one; or thou and I
Love so alike that none do slacken, none can die.

Good Morrow:

The Complete Concordance to Shakespeare: Being a Verbal Index to All the Passages in the Dramatic Works of the Poet Mary Cowden- Clarke, 1845 The Complete Concordance to Shakespeare: Being a Verbal Index to All the Passages in the Dramatic Works of the Poet Mary-Cowden Clarke, 1845 A "fitter" Text of John Donne's "The Good Morrow.", 2002 The purpose of this paper has been to explain the process by which I established the text of John Donne's The Good Morrow. In order to construct the text I examined the forty manuscripts and seven seventeenth century editions that contain part or all of the poem and I transcribed the poem from each source. Then I collated the transcriptions using a computer software program called the Donne Variorum Collation Program. I filiated the manuscripts based on verbal variants and through investigation and comparison created a schema of the poem's transmissional history. I deduced that Donne made minor revisions to the original The Good Morrow and I conservatively emended the version of The Good Morrow in the Dolau Cothi manuscript, the closest manuscript to Donne's Lost Revised Holograph, and presented that copy text for The Good Morrow. I presented a modernized version of the text also. In addition to a detailed explanation of this process I also included a complete listing of variants, the transmissional schema of the poem, and an explanation of how this work fits into the context of contemporary Donne studies and modern editorial practices.
