The Good Negress A. J. Verdelle, 2016-11-22 Haunting To read The Good Negress is to fall under a spell to open a window to fly Los Angeles Times Book Review Twenty years after its initial publication The Good Negress continues to be an important part of the literary canon as relevant and necessary as ever Set in 1960s Detroit the novel centers around Denise Palms who leaves her grandmother s home in rural Virginia to reunite with her mother stepfather and older brothers As a black teenage girl Denise is given scarce opportunity beyond cooking cleaning and raising her mother s baby But an idealistic demanding teacher opens Denise's eyes to a future she has never considered and soon she begins to question the limits of the life prescribed to her With lyrical evocative prose A J Verdelle captures Denise's journey from adolescence to womanhood as she navigates the tension between loyalty and independence and between circumstance and desire The Good Negress is an unforgettable debut simultaneously the portrait of a family and a glimpse into an era of twentieth century America Winner of the Harold D Vursell Memorial Award from the American Academy of Arts and Letters Finalist for the PEN Faulkner Award for Fiction The Good Negress A. Depictions of Home in African American Literature Trudier Harris, 2021-12-06 In Depictions of Home in African American Literature Trudier Harris analyzes fictional homespaces in African American literature from those set in the time of slavery to modern urban configurations of the homespace She argues that African American writers often inadvertently create and follow a tradition of portraying dysfunctional and physically or emotionally violent homespaces Harris explores the roles race and religion play in the creation of homespaces and how geography space and character all influence these spaces Although many characters in African American literature crave safe happy homespaces and frequently carry such images with them through their mental or physical migrations few characters experience the formation of healthy homespaces by the end of their journeys Harris studies the historical cultural and literary portrayals of the home in works from well known authors such as Richard Wright James Baldwin Toni Morrison and August Wilson as well as lesser studied authors such as Daniel Black A.J. Verdelle Margaret Walker and Dorothy West Building Houses out of Chicken Legs Psyche A. Williams-Forson, 2006-12-08 Chicken both the bird and the food has played multiple roles in the lives of African American women from the slavery era to the present It has provided food and a source of income for their families shaped a distinctive culture and helped women define and exert themselves in racist and hostile environments Psyche A Williams Forson examines the complexity of black women s legacies using food as a form of cultural work While acknowledging the negative interpretations of black culture associated with chicken imagery Williams Forson focuses her analysis on the ways black women have forged their own self definitions and relationships to the gospel bird Exploring material ranging from personal interviews to the comedy of Chris Rock from commercial advertisements to the art of Kara Walker and from cookbooks to literature Williams Forson considers how black women arrive at degrees of self definition and self reliance using certain foods She demonstrates how they defy conventional representations of blackness and exercise influence through food preparation and distribution Understanding these complex relationships clarifies how present associations of blacks and chicken are rooted in a past that is fraught with both racism and agency The traditions and practices of feminism Williams Forson argues are inherent in the foods women prepare and serve Mulatto Aluisio Azevedo.1990 Set in the provincial Brazilian state of Maranhao before the abolition of slavery and the establishment of the first republic this scathing expose relates the story of Raimundo a young Brazilian of liberal ideas Mulatto is also a love story set in motion by biology The South in the Building of the Nation: History of the intellectual life, ed. by J.
