Staursky defeats Flores in Brunswick ward 4 race

By GARY MCLENDARO

BRUNSWICK — George Staursky won the Ward 4 seat Tuesday night in a stunning upset of the incumbent, Anthony Flores. The main issue of the campaign, so far as Staursky was concerned, was the record of Flores.

Staursky said Flores was ahead from too many council meetings and was not representing the ward properly.

Goodbye Mom George Staursky, 2004-11 This book is not a biography about a man but rather it is about a Journey This is a Journey through life with this illness Bipolar Disorder and all the dynamics that go along with it This book shows how a man faced the consequences of this disease and all its pain bigotry and anguish but this journey also shows how he defeated the disease This is a book of his Journey through trauma tragedy and recovery This book is a riveting account of that journey It includes others who have suffered the indignities of this illness It brings to life an account of a story that could be written by many different people over time Destroying a life to save the same life could be construed by many as an oxymoron However in this case it fits the scenario perfectly As in the story of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde there had to be destruction of one's inner self to save everyone from the inner demons plaguing Dr Jekyll

Remains of a Cloud Ruth Cohen, 2010-04 Description My book at the start describes my very young life in Tunisia in North Africa where I was born and lived with my large family There I became aware of a strange sickness on my mom's side and I could not pinpoint it The political events brought us me four siblings and my parents To the other side of the Mediterranean Sea We lived in Paris for four years with a sick mom and a dad who had one ideal to go and settle in Israel eight days in the sea of my childhood and we arrived to the Jewish land This move was an enlightenment for the family even though our economical status did not improve for a long time Still we were happy in the land of milk and honey Already in Paris I did not feel good inside myself an eternal sadness And I did not connect my well being with a maternal illness that seemed to be a chain of depressions where my mom was attached To it was impossible to free her I wanted to understand but as I was so different from my mom I did not and could not see the tie between us The delivery of my older son was the beginning of a journey of thirty years where I was extremely sick not knowing the reason of this malediction I had to know Only after twenty five years I was diagnosed with the sickness called the bipolar disorder And for thirty years in spite of horrendous pains in my body And my soul I took the way of optimism I have totally

A Poetic Journey Tina Kaye Hoyer, 2011-04-13 I look in the mirror and what do I see? The vision unravels of what is to be. The shell of a woman whose life has been taken away. What does it mean to look forward to a new day? Take me away from the life that I lead. All I feel is the need to bleed. The desire to see red is like hunger or greed. Unzip my skin and set my heart free. Is there such a thing as a happy me? Or carrying this burden will I always be. From fleeing for her life from a crazed boyfriend to an accidental overdose of prescribed medications and not to mention a life-threatening cutting disorder and eight stays in mental institutions. Tina has overcome monumental obstacles to get to where she is now. Her goal with this book is to inspire and to help others with Bipolar Disorder realize each has different challenges but all can be managed with the proper amount of drive, persistence, and desire to do so. In this book, her poetry tells the traumatic story of her battle back to reality from her living hell with all the raw emotion she was feeling along the way.
