complexities of his thirty year marriage to Cissy a woman seventeen years his senior Raymond Chandler is personal portrait of an author as extraordinary as the fiction he created a body of work that has sold more than five million copies been translated into twenty five languages and inspired countless imitators A discerning portrait of the creator of Philip Marlowe the archetypal American private eye Newsweek Of Memory and the Misplaced Sarah O'Brien,2024-01-02 What can the life writing of post famine Irish immigrants tell us about Irish diasporic memory Of Memory and the Misplaced considers the endurance and nature of Irish American memory across the twentieth century Guided by 30 memoirs written between 1900 and 1970 Sarah O'Brien shows the prevalence of intimate and taboo themes in ordinary immigrants writing such as domestic violence same sex love and famine induced trauma Importantly Of Memory and the Misplaced critiques the role of the Irish landscape as a site of memory and shows how the interiority of the domestic world has provided Irish women with the language needed to reclaim their own lives Combining literary and historical theory Of Memory and the Misplaced highlights voices that have traditionally been silenced and offers a rare and unexplored collection of primary source autobiographical texts to better understand the experiences of Irish immigrants in the United States For Ireland's Sake; Or, Under the Green Flag John Muldoon,Joseph M. Muldoon,1910 Janice M. Van Dyck,2006-10-01 THE O'MALLEY TRILOGY Every daughter lives a trilogy her own story intertwined with her mother's and her grandmother's Like every woman twenty two year old Eve Roberts is afraid she'll grow up to be her mother She wants to be better But after her boyfriend dumps her independent Eve returns home for advice and comfort Amy her mother wants to help but is limited by her abilities unevenly strengthened by her adversities and still healing from a bad divorce The two women spend a weekend together on a Florida beach in brisk humorous and sometimes painful dialogue about the family's history and how it has defined the choices they have made They uncover patterns and experiences handed down from generation to generation irrevocably changing the course of each daughter's life Amy considers her passage from daughter to mother from young to old from beautiful to aging The past becomes clear the future is hard to see On the same beach young Eve begins to see her life as full of possibilities if she can stand on her own Both women know that they must somehow separate from the past without letting go of each other if they are to be the women they aspire to be Alternating chapters in a narrative voice between Eve and Amy this powerful story reverberates with the memories of the mother daughter relationships of both women as they struggle to understand their relationship and reaffirm their love Sources of Irish Traditional Music c. 1600-1855 Aloys Fleischman,2016-12-05 First Published in 1998 Irish traditional music is one of the richest treasuries of folk music in the world Being an oral tradition much of it has already been lost and what has been recorded is only partially available in isolated collections Until now no composite picture has yet been presented showing its remarkable range and diversity over four centuries This volume covers Irish materials in general collections up to 1800 and in Irish collections up to and including Petrie's Ancient Music of Ireland 1855 The purposes of the project are to identify Irish dance tunes and songs to present the scholar with a mass of material showing the evolution of the Irish vocal and instrumental folk style period by period from the earliest recorded tune up to the middle of the last century to put into circulation many of the splendid airs which were lost but have now been located Some 6 000 songs and dance tunes are presented also including Scottish and English tunes Included are Scottish tunes that were used by 18th century Irish poets for their verses and both English and Scottish tunes that are still current among Irish traditional musicians Tunes of present day currency which do not seem to be included may still be located by comparing their first 12 notes in the thematic index at the end of the volume To make the vast array of material readily available an index allows readers to locate a tune by its melodic incipit by any of its titles or by the first line of its text Unfortunately the vast majority of Irish songs noted up to the end of the last century lack texts since the collectors were ignorant of the Irish language But almost every other facet is covered provenance tonality structure and variants

Farewell, My Youth, and Other Writings Arnold Bax, 1992 The autobiography is thoroughly enhanced by a new introduction and notes by Lewis Foreman who has expanded the text with Bax's previously uncollected writings Over 100 photographs evoke the atmosphere of the period This book is an important source on British music before the First World War and a delightful and amusing read in its own right
