Marble Goddesses and Mortal Flesh David Madden, 2024-01-12 In his thirteenth book David Madden returns to Lucius Hutchfield protagonist of Bijou his early masterpiece and one of the most unforgettable characters I've had the pleasure to meet in fiction Over the course of these novellas Madden delivers four distinct episodes from Lucius's life spanning late youth to middle age Marble Goddesses and Mortal Flesh is equal parts comic heartbreaking suspenseful meditative erotic romantic nostalgic always rich in character and sense of place and masterfully rendered end to end Just read it You'll see what I mean Michael Knight author of The Typist A Novel The Hero and the Witness is a harrowing and comic story of nineteen year old Lucius's ordeal as a merchant seaman caught in the crossfire between an enigmatic scapegoat and a violent crew en route to Chile In To Play the Con Lucius now a teacher and a first time novelist cons his little brother's six small town victims into accepting restitution for passing bad checks a scam their older brother taught him and that may send him to the chain gang Lucius works another con in Nothing Dies but Something Mourns by persuading an ancient lady in a mountain town to tell him the romantic story of her brief love affair with Jesse James In the innovative novella Marble Goddesses and Mortal Flesh Lucius now middle aged and a successful novelist buys the derelict Bijou Theater where he was a very young usher and becomes immersed to the brink of psychosis in memories of the immortal movie goddesses of the 40s and the mortal girls of his youth The novella is the perfect medium for this wide ranging author to explore the power of the imagination and of oral storytelling in the lives of his characters Madden's unmatched scope in this collection could draw comparisons to Joseph Conrad Henry James Thomas Wolfe and James M Cain equally well Like Lucius a native of Knoxville DAVID MADDEN was an adolescent usher in the 1940s a Merchant Mariner in the 1950s and his two brothers were con men in their youth He became a teacher in 1957 retiring in 2008 as LSU's Robert Penn Warren Professor of Creative Writing emeritus Living now in Black Mountain North Carolina he has nearly finished a memoir recounting his youthful experiences in the U S Army

Defining Love Rod Charles,1901 Recently I was thinking of a way to define love I will use a visual illustration to look at love There are many different inaccurate uses of the word love as it applies to the material world From the heartfelt love I see that there are two ways to define love One To fill a void in our lonely lives we find a kind of love that I refer to as a superficial love To illustrate this I will use a glass of water Once the water is consumed the glass is empty as is life and the lonely heart returns to find another glass of water That is why the divorce rate in the world is so high This kind of love is very definable as you can see Two Again I will use the same glass of water to illustrate this second kind of love The glass is full of water as before however when the water is consumed the glass is still full It does not matter how much water is consumed the glass remains full there is no way to explain or define the reason why this phenomenon exists It is a kind of meaningful everlasting love You can live this love through the deep feelings from an unknown source within our hearts and our inner beauty Inner beauty is defined as living life from the heart These deep feelings of love remain undefinable We feel this love but we will never know why and we really do not need to know why This love is just there and all the relationships last until death do us part For centuries philosophers sages and countless other individuals have tried to define these inner unknowing feelings of love All efforts have failed and will continue to fail for as long as time exists These words I have written here I hope will inspire the readers to look at life a little differently
