Studies in the Transmission of Wyclif's Writings Anne Hudson, 2023-05-31 Wyclif's ideas caused a major upheaval both in the country of his birth and in the Bohemian area of central Europe that upheaval affected theological ecclesiastical and political developments from the late 14th to the early 16th centuries Some of those ideas were transmitted orally through Wyclif's university teaching in Oxford and in his preaching in London and Lutterworth but the main medium through which his message was disseminated was the written word using the universal western language of Latin The papers in this collection look at aspects of that dissemination from the organization and revision of Wyclif's works to form a summa of his ideas the techniques devised to identify and make accessible his multifarious writings the attempts of the orthodox clerical establishment to destroy them through to the fortunes of his texts in the Reformation period manuscripts written in England and those copied abroad mostly in Bohemia are considered Although most of the papers have been published previously a new edition of the important Hussite catalogue of Wyclif's writings is provided and three lengthy sections contribute new material and additions and corrections to previous listings of Wyclif manuscripts The Expository Times, 1891 The Expository Times James Hastings, Ann Wilson Hastings, Edward Hastings, 1896 R. The Lord's Prayer and the Sermon on the Mount in Matthew's Gospel Charles Nathan Ridlehoover, 2019-12-26 Charles Nathan Ridlehoover examines the Lord's Prayer in Matthew's Gospel focusing on the prayer's centrality and showing how this centrality affects our reading of the Sermon on the Mount and subsequently the prayer itself. Ridlehoover argues that the Lord's Prayer is structurally lexically and thematically central to the Sermon on the Mount and the means through which disciples of Jesus are empowered to live out the kingdom righteousness it defines. In turn the Sermon on the Mount clarifies what the answer to the petitions of the Lord's Prayer might look like in the life of the disciple of Jesus. Whilst the centrality of the Lord's Prayer has been noted by previous commentators this centrality and its intended purpose has not hitherto been defined or examined in great depth. Ridlehoover fills this gap with a closely argued and in depth study ranging from methodology and the structure of the prayer itself to examining the Father will forgiveness and evil petitions and the relevance of word and deed for hearers and doers. Ridlehoover's examination of the relationship between the Sermon and Prayer advances studies in compositional criticism and intratextuality.

Biblical Scholarship in Louvain in the 'Golden' Sixteenth Century Antonio Gerace,2019-07-15 Antonio Gerace dealt with the development of biblical scholarship in Louvain by analysing with seven authors who worked in the first part of the Sixteenth century and who are strictly linked to the Louvain milieu In chronological order they include Nicholas Tacitus Zegers c 1495 1559 John Henten 1499 1566 Cornelius Jansenius of Ghent Adam Sasbout John Hessels 1522 1566 Thomas Stapleton and Francis Lucas of Bruges Each author offered key contributions that can effectively show the development of Catholic biblical scholarship in that period This can be divided into three main thematic areas 1 Text criticism of the Latin Vulgate 2 Exegesis of the Scriptures and 3 Preaching of the Bible Somehow these three areas represent the study flow of the Scriptures the emendation of the Vulgate aimed at restoring the text to a hypothetical original and the philological approach to the Greek and Hebrew sources allowing for a better comprehension of the Bible Such comprehension becomes the basis of commentaries made with the intention of explaining the meaning of the Scriptures to the faithful in the light of the Tradition Furthermore the Church needed to preach the Scriptures and their contents to the Catholic flock in order to safeguard them from any heretical influence Therefore several homiletic works appeared so that priests could prepare their sermons appropriately Therefore Gerace divided his work into three parts each devoted to one of the three research areas following the study flow of the Scriptures
