The Talk of the Town Carla Roth,2022 The Talk of the Town explores everyday communication in a 16th century small town and the role it played in the circulation of information across and within early modern communities using the notebooks of the St Gall linen trader Johannes R tiner to gain unusual insights into an oral world and show how conversation could shape society Catalog of Copyright Entries ,1939 Notes and Queries ,1900 Bodies, Speech, and Reproductive Knowledge in Early Modern England Sara D. Luttfiring,2015-07-16 This volume examines early modern representations of women s reproductive knowledge through new readings of plays monstrous birth pamphlets medical treatises court records histories and more which are often interpreted as depicting female reproductive bodies as passive silenced objects of male control and critique Luttfiring argues instead that these texts represent women exercising epistemological control over reproduction through the stories they tell about their bodies and the ways they act these stories out combining speech and physical performance into what Luttfiring calls bodily narratives The power of these bodily narratives extends beyond knowledge of individual bodies to include the ways that women s stories about reproduction shape the patriarchal identities of fathers husbands and kings In the popular print and theater of early modern England women s bodies women s speech and in particular women s speech about their bodies perform socially constitutive work constructing legible narratives of lineage and inheritance making and unmaking political alliances shaping local economies and defining delimiting male socio political authority in medical royal familial judicial and economic contexts This book joins growing critical discussion of how female reproductive bodies were used to represent socio political concerns and will be of interest to students and scholars working in early modern literature and culture women s history and the history of medicine Russian Traditional Culture Marjorie Mandelstam Balzer,Ronald Radzai,2016-09-16 The resurgence of national and historical awareness among the people of what was once the USSR has been nowhere stronger than among the Russians themselves Some of the larger projects of rediscovery amount to a reinterpretation of traditional culture This carefully annotated collection of recent studies of Russian folk religion village organization and family life including the rituals associated with childbirth special attention to women s roles and to the specificity of Siberia in Russian culture will be a revelation to a wide array of readers It is intended for use not only in anthropology departments but more widely interdisciplinary courses in Russian studies peasant studies and women s studies Agrarian Problems in the Sixteenth Century and After Eric Kerridge,2005-11-03 Presenting a full and precise description of all legal ties between landlord and tenant in early modern England this text re examines one of the key issues in English agrarian history the question of the legal security of the copyholder

Covert Operations Karma Lochrie, 2012-05-28 Selected by Choice magazine as an Outstanding Academic Book In Covert Operations Karma Lochrie brings the categories and cultural meanings of secrecy in the Middle Ages out into the open Isolating five broad areas confession women s gossip medieval science and medicine marriage and the law and sodomitc discourse Lochrie examines various types of secrecy and the literary texts in which they are played out She reads texts as central to Middle English studies as the Parson s Tale the Miller s Tale the Secretum Secretorum and Sir Gawain and the Green Knight as well as a broad range of less familiar works including a gynecological treatise and a little known fifteenth century parody in which gossip and confession become one As she does so she reveals a great deal about the medieval past and perhaps just as much about the early development of the concealments that shape the present day A Selected List of Plays for Amateurs and Students of Dramatic Expression in Schools and Colleges , 1908

The Power of Gifts Felicity Heal, 2014-10-23 Gifts are always with us we use them positively to display affection and show gratitude for favours we suspect that others give and accept them as douceurs and bribes The gift also performed these roles in early modern English culture and assumed a more significant role because networks of informal support and patronage were central to social and political behaviour Favours and their proper acknowledgement were preoccupations of the age of Erasmus Shakespeare and Hobbes As in modern society giving and receiving was complex and full of the potential for social damage Almost nothing men of the Renaissance learned from that great classical guide to morality Lucius Annaeus Seneca is more disgraceful than the fact that we do not know how either to give or receive benefits The Power of Gifts is about those gifts and benefits what they were and how they were offered and received in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries It shows that the mode of giving as well as what was given was crucial to social bonding and political success The volume moves from a general consideration of the nature of the gift to an exploration of the politics of giving In the latter chapters some of the well known rituals of English court life the New Year ceremony royal progresses diplomatic missions are viewed through the prism of gift exchange Gifts to monarchs or their ministers could focus attention on the donor those from the crown could offer some assurance of favour These fundamentals remained the same throughout the century and a half before the Civil War but the attitude of individual monarchs altered specific behaviour Elizabeth expected to be wooed with gifts and dispensed benefits largely for service rendered James I modelled giving as the largesse of the Renaissance prince Charles I s gift exchanges focused on the art collecting of his coterie And always in both politics and the law courts there was the danger that gifts would be corroded morphing from acceptable behaviour into bribes and corruption The Power of Gifts explores prescriptive literature pamphlets correspondence legal cases and financial records to illuminate social attitudes and behaviour through a rich series of examples and case studies

Decoding Debate in the Venetian Senate Grabiela Rojas Molina, 2022-08-29 Debate within the Venetian Senate at turn of the fifteenth century has long been opaque as only an elite few were allowed access to Senate proceedings their participation bound to secrecy This volume offers a new interpretation of scribal intent enabling hidden aspects of those discussions to come to light By using documentation related to Venice s involvement in Albanian territories as a case study this study unfolds the systematic yet secretive method by which scribes classified Senate discussions The registers emerge as triumphs of precise and pragmatic codification within a milieu of information overflow The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1894 The New Century Dictionary of the English Language Hulbert G. Emery,Katharine G. Brewster,1929 Spoken Word and Social Practice ,2015-07-14 Spoken Word and Social Practice Orality in Europe 1400 1700 addresses historians and literary scholars It aims to recapture oral culture in a variety of literary and non literary sources tracking the echo of women s voices on trial or bantering and gossiping in literary works and recapturing those of princes and magistrates townsmen villagers mariners bandits and songsmiths Almost all medieval and early modern writing was marked by the oral Spoken words and turns of phrase are bedded in writings and the mental habits of a speaking world shaped texts Writing also shaped speech the oral and the written zones had a porous busy boundary Cross border traffic is central to this study as is the power range utility and suppleness of speech Contributors are Matthias B hr Richard Blakemore Michael Braddick Rosanna Cantavella Thomas V Cohen Gillian Colclough Jan Dumolyn Susana Gala Pellicer Jelle Haemers Marcus Harmes Elizabeth Horodowich Carolina Losada Virginia Reinburg Anne Regent Susini Joseph T Snow Sonia Suman Lesley K Twomey and Liv Helene Willumsen Publishers' circular and booksellers' record ,1895 Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1895
