Null,2023-02-17 Standing firm in the face of adversity is an opportunity that we all get to endure I think the willingness to stand is not something that we learn to do but rather that we are inspired to do When we stand we give the Lord something to work with We give him someone to anoint for a purpose someone to use for his cause The willingness to stand arises from having seen others do so or having been inspired through his word Standing firm in the face of adversity is also a matter of character Pastors people and churches often find themselves with the choice of standing firm or fleeing Those who stand are guaranteed a fight Those who flee are guaranteed a failure Since this is the case standing looking for God s victory seems to be the proper course      Marriage Ministry by Design Gary H.,Aimee Woolverton,2012-07-27 Your church or ministry will

why high potential highly motivated churches struggle in their God given mission The fizzling church is defined as one that began with great promise and excitement only to stagnate or flatline in influence What are the components of churches that fizzle and what are the attributes of churches that succeed Practical insights and exercises are presented in clear and simple language to the readership and the author writes from the perspective of an organizational leadership professor an executive leader from a major Christian university and as an executive pastor Cultural Change & Your Church Michael Pocock, Joseph Henriques, 2007-02-01 In our communities composed of people from various cultures countries and backgrounds where does the church stand How representative is it And how can local churches best minister and evangelize within an increasingly multicultural society Cultural Change and Your Church is an invaluable resource for understanding the transformation of our cultural landscape and most importantly for learning how to embrace the resulting opportunities to minister to all people Michael Pocock and Joseph Henriques consider the Bible s examples and teaching related to diversity introduce several churches currently modeling cross cultural ministry and suggest hands on ways for church leaders to encourage change and proactive thinking
