

The 18th Century Literature

- The Eighteenth Century is called the Classical Age in English literature on account of three reasons.
 1. In the first place, the term 'classic', refers in general, applies to writers of the highest rank in any nation. This term was first applied to the works of the great Greek and Roman writers, like Homer and Virgil.
- As the writers of the eighteenth century in England tried to follow the simple and noble methods of the great ancient writers, they began to be called Classical writers.

book analyzes the impact of significant cultural developments on literary themes and forms including urbanization colonial and mercantile expansion the emergence of the public sphere and changes in sex and gender roles In eighteenth century Britain many of the things we take for granted about modern life were shockingly new women appeared for the first time on stage the novel began to dominate the literary marketplace people entertained the possibility that all human beings were created equal and tentatively proposed that reason could triumph over superstition ministers became more powerful than kings and the consumer emerged as a political force Eighteenth Century English Literature 1660 1789 explores these issues in relation to well known works by such authors as Defoe Swift Pope Richardson Gray and Sterne while also bringing attention to less familiar figures such as Charlotte Smith Mary Leapor and Olaudah Equiano It offers both an ideal introduction for students and a fresh approach for those with research interests in the period

ENGLISH LITERATURE ADVANCING THROUGH HISTORY 4 - The Eighteenth Century Petru Golban, 2022-12-28 It appears that literary work possesses eternal temporal validity due to its autonomous aesthetic value whereas criticism provides points of view having temporary and transitory significance Despite such claims the vector of methodology in our series of books dealing with the history of English literature relies on Viktor Shklovsky T S Eliot Mikhail Bakhtin and especially Yuri Tynyanov whose main reasoning would be that literature is a system of dominant central and peripheral marginalized elements to us tradition centre versus innovation margin engaged in a battle for supremacy demarginalization and the right to form a new literary system and the development or historical advancement of literature is the substitution of systems Roman Jakobson and French structuralism on the whole later Linda Hutcheon with her system and constant and Bran Nicol with the dominant to say nothing about Itamar Even Zohar and his theory of polysystem to a certain extent Julia Kristeva and even Homi Bhabha as well as our humble contribution we would like to believe maintain Tynyanov's line of thinking and concepts alive which have developed and emerged nowadays more like a kind of neo formalism Focusing on literary practice applying critical theory and emerging from within our own teaching experience the books in the present series are theoretical and surveyistic like a monograph whereas their more practical and text oriented aspect should appeal as a student handbook for didactic purposes in which certain literary works belonging to various writers of different trends movements and periods are analysed and compared with regard to their source form thematic arrangements ideas motifs character representation strategies intertextual perspectives structural or narrative techniques and other aspects nationality religion political factions and age and the media available at the time including novels newspapers trial reports images and the theatre Representative case studies are the arrival of children s literature as a genre the creation of masculine citizenship in Defoe s novels the performance of gendered and national identities by the actress Kitty Clive or in plays by Henry Fielding and Richard Sheridan fashion and the public sphere the emergence of the Whig and Tory parties the radical culture of the 1790s and visual representations of domestic and imperial landscape Recognizing the proliferation of identities in the epoch these essays explore the ways in which different media determined constructions of identity and were in turn shaped by them
