Edward Weston Photographer:

Edward Weston Edward Weston, Charis Wilson, 1993      Edward Weston Brett Abbott, J. Paul Getty Museum, 2005 In 2003 the Getty Museum which holds a collection of about 240 Weston prints hosted a colloquium on the photographer This volume in the In Focus series records remarks by the author Brett Abbott along with those of six other participants William Clift Amy Conger David Featherstone Weston Naef David Travis and Jennifer Watts Context for their conversation is provided by the author's introduction plate texts and chronology Approximately fifty of Weston's images demonstrate why his work continues to resonate with a contemporary public and serves as a model for a host of photographers active today BOOK JACKET      Portraits Edward Weston, 1995 Weston seized the photographic moment through a shrewd and unusual technique by only pretending to shoot film for a period of time before actually taking the photograph and then flashing the lens cap without the subjects knowing he cleverly guided them beyond the pose even allowing his sitters to wander freely about the studio      Edward Weston Edward Weston, Terence Pitts, Ansel Adams, Manfred Heiting, 2004-01-01 Presentation de l'oeuvre du photographe américain inspiré par ses intuitions profondes et par sa croyance en des forces sous-jacentes au réel et au factuel      Edward Weston Edward Weston, 1995-10-30 This new book surveys Edward Weston's work more comprehensively and exhaustively than any previous work A combination of biography and critical analysis it offers more than 320 meticulously reproduced duotone images nearly a quarter of which have never been reproduced in books before The selected photographs trace Weston's career from his early days through formative years in Mexico and on through the balance of his career which ended because of the onset of Parkinson's disease ten years prior to his death in 1958 Treated chronologically and emphasizing Weston's creative preoccupations in each period the book includes work that he created in 1938 and 1939 with funds from the first two Guggenheim Foundation grants ever awarded to a photographer To illustrate the book vintage prints have been selected from the copious Weston Archives at the Center for Creative Photography in Tucson Arizona and the highly important Lane Collection at the Boston Museum of Fine Arts Nearly 10 000 photographs have been examined in order to select those reproduced in the book      Edward Weston Edward Weston, 1986 Presents thirty-two color images chosen from approximately sixty transparencies produced by photographer Edward Weston between 1946 and 1948 near the end of his career and includes essays that discuss his relationship with the Eastman Kodak Company in the advent of color film and Weston's original 1953 essay Color as Form      Edward Weston Karen E. Haas, Margaret Wessling, 2018 This is a book about Edward Weston His early years in the field coincided exactly with the height of the Pictorialist movement in America and while he was never a typical practitioner he did make photographs that borrowed themes from paintings and other media and experimented with soft focused imagery that sometimes look more like graphite drawings or inky dark prints than photographs He would later disavow the gauzy painterly experiments of his early years Introducing rare surviving prints from the unplumbed holdings of the Lane Collection at the Museum of Fine Arts Boston this book offers new insights into Weston's working methods and his evolution as a photographer. Beautifully reproduced examples of Weston's most important early work, essays explaining their place in his oeuvre, and a section dedicated to the variety of Weston's early materials and techniques make this book a must-have resource. Provided by publisher Edward Weston, Photographer. The Flame of Recognition. His Photographs [including Portraits] Accompanied by Excerpts from the Day-books & Letters ...
