Egypt Vs Greece And The American Academy The Debate Over The Birth Of Civilization:

An Afrocentric Manifesto Molefi Kete Asante, 2013-05-08 Molefi Kete Asante's Afrocentric philosophy has become one of the most persistent influences in the social sciences and humanities over the past three decades. It strives to create new forms of discourse about Africa and the African Diaspora, impact on education through expanding curricula to be more inclusive, change the language of social institutions to reflect a more holistic universe, and revitalize conversations in Africa, Europe, and America about an African renaissance based on commitment to fundamental ideas of agency, centeredness, and cultural location. In An Afrocentric Manifesto, Molefi Kete Asante examines and explores the cultural perspective closest to the existential reality of African people in order to present an innovative interpretation on the modern issues confronting contemporary society. Thus, this book engages the major critiques of Afrocentricity, defends the necessity for African people to view themselves as agents instead of as objects on the fringes of Europe, and proposes a more democratic framework for human relationships. An Afrocentric Manifesto completes Asante's quartet on Afrocentric theory. It is at the cutting edge of this new paradigm with implications for all disciplines and fields of study. It will be essential reading for urban studies, philosophy, African and African American Studies, social work, sociology, political science, and communication. Developing Africa? Lehasa Moloi, 2024-03-12 Developing Africa: New Horizons with Afrocentricity aims to contest the Eurocentric narrative of an African development discourse. This book deploys the theory of Afrocentricity as an intellectual standpoint from which African thinkers should interrogate and reconceptualize the discourse of development in Africa. Particularly, the book argues in favour of the Afrocentric re-interpretation of African history, African culture, and assertion of African agency as the core building wedge in the reconceptualization of the ideal African development trajectory. Afrosocial Knowledge and Cheikh Anta Diop François Ngoa Kodena, 2023-07-03 Afrosocial Knowledge and Cheikh Anta Diop: Geo-Ethical and Political Implications wrestles with the cultural, epistemological, ethical, and geopolitical conundrums of our contemporary world. The book offers fresh conceptual and dialogical frameworks that allow the reader to explore alternative perspectives on the axiological impasses of philosophy. A cultural slide from Greek to African terrain offers a novel semantic trope, namely, sofia in the Beti Mvett. Therefore, sofia calls for sofia, the trope for subjective and social solarization. François Ngoa Kodena argues that sofia is a psychological, discursive, social, and civilizational sickness constantly sharpened to weed barbarism in its alienating imperial, colonial, mental, linguistic, racist, and prejudicial overtones from private and public spheres. Kodena's methodology is direct and transdisciplinary; his overall ontological outlook is curative and conciliatory. After expounding an Afrosocial Antadiploian paradigm, the author undertakes an in-depth examination of Cheikh Anta Diop's epistemology to uncover its subtle underlying threads connecting sofia to the Kemetic cosmic law of becoming, called kheper. Contemporary humanity is thus faced with a crucial dilemma: civilization or barbarism. The former informs earthly existential struggles and epistemic Afrosocial practices. The Routledge Handbook of Comparative World Rhetorics Keith Lloyd, 2020-06-10

The Routledge Handbook of Comparative World Rhetorics offers a broad and comprehensive understanding of comparative or world rhetoric from ancient times to the modern day. Bringing together an international team of established and emergent scholars, this Handbook looks beyond Greco-Roman traditions in the study of rhetoric to provide an international cross-cultural study of communication practices around the globe. With dedicated sections covering theory and practice, history, pedagogy, hybrids, and the modern context, this extensive collection will provide the reader with a solid understanding of how comparative rhetoric evolved, how it redefines and expands the field of rhetorical studies, what it contributes to our understanding of human communication, its implications for the advancement of related fields such as composition, technology, language studies, and literacy. In a world where understanding how people communicate, argue, and persuade is as important as understanding their languages, The Routledge Handbook of Comparative World Rhetorics is an essential resource for scholars and students of communication, composition, rhetoric, cultural studies, cultural rhetoric, cross-cultural studies, transnational studies, translingual studies, and languages.

An Intellectual Biography of Africa Francis Kwarteng, 2022-07-13

Africa is the birthplace of humanity and civilization. And yet, people generally don't want to accept the scientific impression of Africa as the birthplace of human civilization. The skeptics include Africans themselves, a direct result of the colonial educational systems still in place across Africa, and even those Africans who acquire Western education, particularly in the humanities, have been trapped in the symptomatology of epistemic peonage. These colonial educational systems have overstayed their welcome and should be dismantled. This is where African agency comes in. Agential autonomy deserves an authoritative voice in shaping the curricular direction of Africa. Agential autonomy implicitly sanctions an Afrocentric approach to curriculum development, pedagogy, historiography, literary theory, indigenous language development, and knowledge construction. Science, technology, engineering, mathematics, information and communications technology, STEM, ICT, and research and development (R&D) both exercise foundational leverage in the scientific and cultural discourse of the kind of African Renaissance Cheikh Anta Diop envisaged. Mr. Francis Kwarteng has written a book that looks at some of the major distortions of African history and Africa's major contributions to human civilization. In this context, Mr. Kwarteng joins a long list of thinkers who roundly reject the foundational Eurocentric epistemology of Africa in favor of an Afrocentric paradigm of Africa's material, spiritual, scientific, and epistemic assertion. Mr. Kwarteng places STEM and a revision of the humanities at the center of the African Renaissance and critiques Eurocentric fantasies about Africa and its Diaspora, following the critical examples of Cheikh Anta Diop, Ama Mazama, Molefi Kete Asante, Abdul Karim Bangura, Theophile Obenga, Maulana Karenga, Mubabingo Bilolo Kwame Nkrumah, Ivan Van Sertima, W. E. B. Du Bois, and several others. Readers of this book will be challenged to look at Africa through a critical lens. Ama Mazama, editor, author of Africa in the 21st Century: Toward a New Future. There are countless books about the evolution of European intellectual thought, but scarcely any that captures the pioneering contributions of Africans since the beginning of recorded knowledge in Kemet, aka Ancient Egypt.

Well that long drought has ended with the publication of Kwarteng's An Intellectual Biography of Africa: A Philosophical Anatomy of Advancing Africa the Diopian Way. Prepare to be educated Milton Allimadi author of Manufacturing Hate: How Africa Was Demonized in the Media. British Women Writers and the Reception of Ancient Egypt, 1840-1910 Molly Youngkin, 2016-04-29 Focusing on British women writers' knowledge of ancient Egypt, Youngkin shows the oftentimes limited but pervasive representations of ancient Egyptian women in their written and visual works. Images of Hathor, Isis, and Cleopatra influenced how British writers such as George Eliot and Edith Cooper came to represent female emancipation.

Bloom's How to Write about Langston Hughes James B. Kelley, Harold Bloom, 2009 Provides a detailed introduction to writing an essay about literature and presents and discusses sample topics based on author Langston Hughes' works.

Africa and the Americas Richard M. Juang, Noelle Morrisette, 2008-03-12 This encyclopedia explores the many long-standing influences of Africa and people of African descent on the culture of the Americas while tracing the many ways in which the Americas remain closely interconnected with Africa. Ranging from the 15th century to the present, Africa and the Americas: Culture, Politics, and History explores the many ways Africa and African peoples have shaped the cultural life of the Americas and how in turn life in the Americas reverberates in Africa. This groundbreaking three-volume encyclopedia offers hundreds of alphabetically organized entries on African history, nations, and peoples, plus African-influenced aspects of life in the Americas. It also features authoritative introductory essays on history, culture, and religion; demography; international relations; economics and trade; and arts and literature. In doing so, it traces the complex and continuous movement of peoples of African descent to the West, the mechanics and lingering effects of colonialism and the slave trade, and the crucial issues of cultural retention and adaptation that are essential to our understanding of the effects of globalization. The African World in Dialogue Teresa N. Washington, 2016-11-29 The African World in Dialogue: An Appeal to Action is a probing and politically timely collection of essays, interviews, speeches, poetry, short stories, and proposals. These rich works illuminate the struggles, dreams, triumphs, impediments, and diversity of the contemporary African world. The African World in Dialogue contains five sections: Listen, The Ink Speaks, Restitutions, Resolutions, and Revolutions. Africanity, Education, and Technology, Life Lines from the Front Lines, and Gender, Power, and Infinite Promise. Each section brims with provocative and compelling insights from elder warriors, wordsmiths, journalists, and academics, many of whom are also activists. The volume's contributors include Tunde Adegbola, Muhammad Ibn Bashir, Jacqueline Bediako, Charlie Braxton, Alieu Bundu, Baba A. O. Buntu, Chinweizu, Ricardo Cortez, Cruz Oyinlola, Longe Jumbe, Kweku Lumumba, Morgan Miller, Asiri Odu, Chinwe Ezinna, Oriji Kevin, Powell Blair, Marcus Proctor, Ishola Akindele, Salami Aseret, Sin, Teresa N. Washington, and Ayoka Wiles. The book also features interviews with Hilary La Force, Mandingo Kambale, Musavili, and Prince Kuma Ndumbe. With selections designed to critique and in many cases upend conventional political thought, educational norms, fantasies of social progress, and gender myths, The African World in Dialogue challenges its audience. The book's Appeal to Action is literal. Rather than offering eloquent elaborations of African world woes The African World in Dialogue offers detailed plans and paths for emancipation and elevation that readers are urged to implement Activists and scholars of African studies African American studies Pan Africanism criminal justice Black revolutionary thought and action gender studies sociology and political science will find this book to be both inspirational and indispensable Encyclopedia of Black Studies Molefi Kete Asante, Ama Mazama, 2005 In the 1960s Black Studies emerged as both an academic field and a radical new ideological paradigm Editors Molefi Kete Asante and Ama Mazama Black Studies Temple U both influential and renowned scholars have compiled an encyclopedia for students high school and beyond and general readers It presents analysis of key individuals events a Decolonizing and Feminizing Freedom Denise Noble, 2017-02-17 This book traces the powerful discourses and embodied practices through which Black Caribbean women have been imagined and produced as subjects of British liberal rule and modern freedom It argues that in seeking to escape liberalism's gendered and racialised governmentalities Black women's everyday self-making practices construct decolonising and feminising epistemologies of freedom These in turn repeatedly interrogate the colonial logics of liberalism and Britishness Genealogically structured the book begins with the narratives of freedom and identity presented by Black British Caribbean women It then analyses critical moments of crisis in British racial rule at home and abroad in which gender and Caribbean women figure as points of concern Post war Caribbean immigration to the UK decolonisation of the British Caribbean and the post emancipation reconstruction of the British Caribbean loom large in these considerations In doing all of this the author unravels the colonial legacies that continue to underwrite contemporary British multicultural anxieties This thought provoking work will appeal to students and scholars of social and cultural history politics feminism race and postcoloniality Afro and Indigenous Intersectionality in America as Nomen Larry L.
