The Music of Elliott Carter David Schiff, 2018-10-18 Arguably the most important American composer of the century Elliott Carter often has been more highly regarded in Europe than in his native land Interest in his work has grown rapidly in recent years however and the celebration of his ninetieth birthday in December 1998 accompanied by numerous performances and new recordings undoubtedly will increase the attention of his fellow citizens to this remarkable figure Authoritative and gracefully written The Music of Elliott Carter engages composers performers and critics and speaks to concert goers whether attuned to or alarmed by the formidable difficulty of Carter's music David Schiff views the music from the perspective of the composer's development and relates his compositional techniques to those nonmusical arts contemporary American poetry in particular with which Carter has been deeply involved The volume benefits from Schiff's extensive discussions of Carter's works with their most noted performers including Heinz Holliger Oliver Knussen and Ursula Oppens and from the generous cooperation of the composer himself This new edition a thoroughly reorganized revised and updated version of the book published in 1983 accounts for the many new works written by Carter since 1980 and accommodates the burgeoning critical literature on his music Its features include many musical examples and a selected discography In addition to the new foreword the composer has provided his listing of three to six note chords and a note on Voyage

All-State Prep Eddie Lewis, 2007 Written for high school trumpet players intending to audition for the All State Band All State Prep for Trumpet covers everything a student will need to practice from the time after solo and ensemble contest mid Spring until the day the All State music is announced late Summer The objective of this book is to help the student sound more mature and stand out at the audition Most students only strive to be as good as the rest of the students their age As a result it is difficult for the judges to tell them apart The judges can identify the top two or three players and they almost always recognize the worst players in the room The ninety percent of players between those extremes make up a pool of mediocrity that the judges are forced to choose from almost at random Being one of the ninety percent is a lot like playing the lottery Being selected for the All State Band becomes a game of chance The good news is that high school students can swing the odds in their favor and sound like a college player if they focus on the correct preparation Judges are not impressed with the same things that impress high school trumpet players Judges are not impressed with playing high fast or loud They are impressed with musical maturity All State Prep for Trumpet focuses on developing the musical maturity that wins auditions
