Energy and Geopolitics in the South China Sea ASEAN Studies Centre, 2009 China has long claimed the ownership of a network of widely scattered islands and their surrounding waters and resources in the South China Sea These claims overlap in a substantial way with those of at least three ASEAN countries Vietnam the Philippines and Malaysia To this day the South China Sea has remained one of the regions most dangerous flashpoints Despite regional efforts to calm the situation the complicated nature of the issue continues to challenge regional security The ASEAN Studies Centre has taken this initiative to host a discussion on Energy and Geopolitics in South China Sea with contributions from Michael Richardson and a number of experts in this area to put across their analytical views of the issue

Geography in the 21st Century Jayson J. Funke, Waquar Ahmed, Ipsita Chatterjee, Stephen M. McCauley, 2025 These 40 chronologically arranged entries examine the key events that have most profoundly shaped global society in the opening decades of the 21st Century

The Oxford Handbook of Indian Foreign Policy David M. Malone, C. Raja Mohan, Srinath Raghavan, 2015-07-23 Following the end of the Cold War the economic reforms in the early 1990s and ensuing impressive growth rates India has emerged as a leading voice in global affairs particularly on international economic issues Its domestic market is fast growing and India is becoming increasingly important to global geo strategic calculations at a time when it has been outperforming many other growing economies and is the only Asian country with the heft to counterbalance China Indeed so much is India defined internationally by its economic performance and challenges that other dimensions of its internal situation notably relevant to security and of its foreign policy have been relatively neglected in the existing literature This handbook presents an innovative high profile volume providing an authoritative and accessible examination and critique of Indian foreign policy The handbook brings together essays from a global team of leading experts in the field to provide a comprehensive study of the various dimensions of Indian foreign policy India and Southeast Asia in a Changing World Shailza Singh, Philip Varghese, Shalini Balaiah, Sarish Sebastian, 2024-12-16 This book presents a comprehensive analysis of India s relationship with the Southeast Asian nations in the context of the changing dynamics of international relations and the emergence of Indo Pacific as the theatre of world politics It covers a wide range of themes from strategic to political economic diplomatic and security aspects and assesses how India s redefining of its role in world politics unfolds through its posture towards the Southeast Asian region The volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of Asian studies both South Asian and Southeast Asian studies and politics and international relations It will also be useful for public policy analysts and think tanks and policymakers Indonesia's Foreign Policy and Grand Strategy in the 21st Century Vibhanshu Shekhar, 2018-03-14 This book examines the changes in Indonesian foreign policy during the 21st century as it seeks to position itself as a great power in the Indo Pacific region The rise of 21st century Indonesia is becoming a permanent fixture in both the domestic and global discourses Though there has been an increasing level of discussion on Indonesia s emerging power status there has been little discussion on how the country is debating and signalling its new found status This book combines the insights of both neo classical realism and social identity theory to discuss a reset in an emerging Indonesia s foreign policy during the 21st century while emphasizing domestic drivers and constraints of its international behaviour There are three key organizing components of the book emerging power status signalling and the Indo Pacific region The Indo Pacific region constitutes a spatial framing of the book the emerging power provides an analytical category to explain Indonesia s changing international status and status signalling explains multiple facets of international behaviour through which the country is projecting its new status Though leaders are adding different styles and characteristics to the rising Indonesia narrative there are a few unmistakable overarching trends that highlight an increasing correlation between the country s rising power and growing ambition in international behaviour This book is built around four key signalling strategies of Indonesia as an emerging power expanded regional canvas power projection leadership projection and quest for great power parity They represent Indonesia s growing desire for a status consistent behaviour its response to the prevailing strategic uncertainty in the Indo Pacific region and its attempt to advance its strategic interests This book will be of much interest to students of South East Asian politics strategic studies international
