Morton, 2000 A look at how the 1931 International Colonial Exposition in Paris created hybrids of French and colonial culture Unconsciousness Between Phenomenology and Psychoanalysis Dorothée Legrand, Dylan Trigg, 2017-05-18 This book contains a series of essays that explore the concept of unconsciousness as it is situated between phenomenology and psychoanalysis A leading goal of the collection is to carve out phenomenological dimensions within psychoanalysis and equally to carve out psychoanalytical dimensions within phenomenology The book examines the nature of unconsciousness and the role it plays in structuring our sense of self It also looks at the extent to which the unconscious marks the body as it functions outside of experience as well as manifests itself in experience In addition the book explores the relationship between unconsciousness and language particularly if unconsciousness exists prior to language or if the concept can only be understood through speech The collection includes contributions from leading scholars each of whom grounds their investigations in a nuanced mastery of the traditional voices of their fields These contributors provide diverse viewpoints that challenge both the phenomenological and psychoanalytical traditions in their relation to unconsciousness

The Aesthetics of the Undersea Margaret Cohen, Killian Quigley, 2018-12-20 Among global environments the undersea is unique in the challenges it poses and the opportunities it affords for sensation perception inquiry and fantasy The Aesthetics of the Undersea draws case studies in such potencies from the subaqueous imaginings of Western culture and from the undersea realities that have inspired them The chapters explore aesthetic engagements with underwater worlds and sustain a concern with submarine sense in several meanings of that word when submerged faculties and fantasies transform confronting human subjects with their limitations while enlarging the apparent scope of possibility and invention Terrestrially established categories and contours shift metamorphose or fail altogether to apply As ocean health acquires an increasing share of the global environmental imaginary the histories of submarine sense manifest ever greater importance and offer resources for documentation as well as creativity The chapters deal with the sensory material and formal provocations of the underwater environment and consider the consequences of such provocations for aesthetic and epistemological paradigms Contributors who hail from the United States United Kingdom and Australia include scholars of literature art new media music and history Cases studies range from baroque and rococo fantasies to the gothic surrealism modernism and contemporary installation art By juxtaposing early modern and Enlightenment contexts with matters of more recent and indeed contemporary importance The Aesthetics of the Undersea establishes crucial relations among temporally remote entities which will resonate across the environmental humanities
