Full Bloom: The Art and Life of Georgia O'Keeffe Hunter Drohojowska-Pilp, 2005-11-15 Offers a portrait of the twentieth century woman artist through discussions of her marriage to art photography pioneer Alfred Stieglitz, the impact of his infidelity on her psyche, and her relocation to New Mexico where she created her signature works.

Wild Exuberance Rebecca Foster, Caroline M. Welsh, 2005-06-16 Early in his career, critics and collectors widely recognized that Harold Weston (1894-1972) was capturing and saying something unusual in his paintings. There is a young American painter wrote Duncan Phillips who stirs in me the hope for a rebirth on this new soil of something that was not lost to the art of painting with the passing of Vincent van Gogh. Along with 104 color and ten black and white plates of Weston's works, the catalog includes essays that cover myriad aspects of Weston's life and art. The Adirondack Museum's chief curator, Caroline M. Welsh, explores nature and wilderness preservation as themes in twentieth century art and places Weston in the context of his contemporaries who painted the Adirondacks. The biographical essay by the exhibition's guest curator, Rebecca Foster, follows the unfolding of a career in parallel to the unfolding of a life. Weston's rich technique is explored by Stephen Bennett Phillips, curator at the Phillips Collection, in an analysis of the painting. Theodore E. Stebbins Jr., curator of American art at the Fogg Art Museum, provides an introduction to the catalogue.

Georgia O'Keeffe Nancy J. Scott, 2015-06-15 Georgia O'Keeffe, the most famous woman artist of American modernism and a pioneer in abstract art, created a vision without precedent. She expressed the grandeur of her world in the Southwest, from the high desert mesas to the smallest flower, with fierce independence. And a separate world has risen up around her fame, from the photographic nudes of her by Alfred Stieglitz to the iconic images of her years later set in the stunning landscapes of New Mexico. In this book, Nancy J. Scott draws on extensive sources, including many of O'Keeffe's letters, to offer a sensitive and incisive examination of her groundbreaking works, their evolution, and how their reception has been caught in conflicts between O'Keeffe's inner self and public persona. Following the young artist as her path-breaking abstract charcoal landscapes caught the attention of gallery impresario Stieglitz, Scott tells the story of their partnership, of Stieglitz's nudes and the development of O'Keeffe's early reputation as a sexually inspired, Freudian-minded artist. Scott explores the independent expression that O'Keeffe forged in opposition to the interpretations of her abstract work and the hybrid space that O'Keeffe's works came to inhabit. Ultimately, she blended the abstract with the real in interpretations of flowers, bones, shells, rocks, and landscapes, which would become her hallmark subjects. Unique to this biography is the inclusion of her letters, which have only recently been made available. They show that her words can be just as revelatory as her paintings, and they offer the intimate voice of an artist alive in an era of great artistic development. The result is a succinct yet comprehensive account of one of the most prolific and important artists of the twentieth century.
