Georgia Postcards Southwest Georgia:

Southwest Georgia in Vintage Postcards Gary L. Doster, 1998 Southwest Georgia in Vintage Postcards Gary L. Doster, 1998 From the 1890s through the 1920s the postcard was an extraordinarily popular means of communication and many of the postcards produced during this golden age can today be considered works of art Postcard photographers travelled the length and breadth of the nation snapping photographs of busy street scenes documenting local landmarks and assembling crowds of local children only too happy to pose for a picture These images printed as postcards and sold in general stores across the country survive as telling reminders of an important era in America's history This fascinating new history of Southwest Georgia showcases more than two hundred of the best vintage postcards available Rome, Georgia in Vintage Postcards Robin L. Scott, 2001 When Rome was founded in 1834 Col Daniel R Mitchell suggested the name because of the surrounding hills much like those of ancient Rome Italy Known today as The City of Seven Hills Rome has been voted one of the most livable cities in the South It is the medical center of Northwest Georgia with a population of over 30 000 and a thriving community with abundant opportunities for business education and recreation Historic views of Rome seen through the eyes of the traveling postcard photographer fill the pages of this engaging volume Longtime residents of the community will delight in remembering area landmarks including the old Clock Tower Shorter College Berry College Myrtle Hill Cemetery the downtown business section of Broad Street and the neighboring communities of Lindale and Cave Spring

Columbus, Georgia in Vintage Postcards Kenneth H. Thomas, 2001 Founded in 1828 as a planned city by the Georgia Legislature Columbus prospered due to its location on the Chattahoochee River Industry sprang up along the shores of the Chattahoochee and shaped Columbus's identity as one of Georgia's premier cities Today a thriving metropolis it is the Columbus of yesteryear that is illuminated within these pages Early postcard views reflect the city from around 1905 to 1942 showcasing many of its businesses neighborhoods and parks Included are places virtually unknown to citizens today the Bell Tower the City Market North Highlands Park and Wildwood Park as well as those that were landmarks a century ago and landmarks still the Iron Bank the Springer Opera House the Union Depot the YMCA and Fort Benning Southeast Georgia in Vintage Postcards Gary L. Doster, 1998-11 From the 1890s through the 1920s the postcard was an extraordinarily popular means of communication and many of the postcards produced during this golden age can today be considered works of art Postcard photographers traveled the length and breadth of the nation snapping photographs of busy street scenes documenting local landmarks and assembling crowds of local children only too happy to pose for a picture These images printed as postcards and sold in general stores across the country survive as telling reminders of an important era in America's history This fascinating new history of Southeast Georgia showcases more than two hundred of the best vintage postcards available Troup County in Vintage Postcards Troup County Historical Society, 2002-09-05 Troup County in Vintage Postcards traces a major period of growth and development for this Georgia community from the late 19th through the mid 20th century Snapshot glimpses of history preserved on postcards reveal the second courthouse which burned in 1936 the textile mills that opened at a rapid pace as the county entered the era of the New South the early days of LaGrange Female College which became co ed in 1954 Southern Female College which closed in 1919 Ferrell Gardens which began in 1832 and is now a landmark in the county as well as scenes of schools churches homes farms and businesses Cumulated Index to the Books ,1999 Georgia Off the Beaten Path® Janice McDonald,2016-08-01 The essential source of information about the sights and sites travelers and locals want to see and experience if only they knew about them From the best in local dining to quirky cultural tidbits to hidden attractions unique finds and unusual locales these guides take the reader down the road less traveled Atlanta in Vintage Postcards Elena Irish Zimmerman,1999 From the 1890s through the 1920s the postcard was an extraordinarily popular means of communication and many of the postcards produced during this golden age can today be considered works of art Northeast Georgia in Vintage Postcards Gary L. Doster,1998-09 From the 1890s through the 1920s the postcard was an extraordinarily popular means of communication and many of the postcards produced during this golden age can today be considered works of art Postcard photographers traveled the length and breadth of the nation snapping photographs of busy street scenes documenting local landmarks and assembling crowds of local children only too happy to pose for a picture These images printed as postcards and sold in general stores across the country survive as telling reminders of an important era in America s history This fascinating new history of Northeast Georgia showcases more than two hundred of the best vintage postcards available Postcard America Jeffrey L. Meikle,2016-01-20 From the Great Depression through the early postwar years any postcard sent in America was more than likely a linen card Colorized in vivid often exaggerated hues and printed on card stock embossed with a linen like texture linen postcards celebrated the American scene with views of majestic landscapes modern cityscapes roadside attractions and other notable features These colorful images portrayed the United States as shimmering with promise quite unlike the black and white worlds of documentary photography or Life magazine Linen postcards were enormously popular with close to a billion printed and sold Postcard America offers the first comprehensive study of these cards and their cultural significance Drawing on the production files of Curt Teich Co of Chicago the originator of linen postcards Jeffrey L Meikle reveals how photographic views were transformed into colorized postcard images often by means of manipulation adding and deleting details or collaging bits and pieces from several photos He presents two extensive portfolios of postcards landscapes and cityscapes that comprise a representative iconography of linen postcard views For each image Meikle explains the postcard s subject describes aspects of its production and places it in social and cultural contexts In the concluding chapter he shifts from historical interpretation to a contemporary viewpoint considering nostalgia as a motive for collectors and others who are fascinated today by these striking images Report of State Auditor Georgia. Dept. of Audits and Accounts,1956 Federal Register ,2013-08 Breaking News Fred Thirkell,Bob Scullion,George Alfred Barrowclough,2004 Winner of a City of Vancouver Heritage Award 2005 Before the First World War photographs of major news events were rarely seen in the daily newspapers the technology was still too new to make their use viable Filling the gap and providing the missing images were the postcard photographers who could make their breaking news photos available on the street the day after an event occurred George Alfred Barrowclough was one of those photographers Barrowclough had the eye of an artist and the nose of a newsman His images of Vancouver and the surrounding areas stand out over those of other postcard photographers of his day in that they are more people centred and action oriented capturing the lives and appearances of the people living in and around Vancouver in the decade before the Great War Drawing from postcards that Barrowclough produced between 1908 and 1912 award winning authors Fred Thirkell and Bob Scullion have selected images for Breaking News that showcase the photographer s focus on people and events In Vancouver in those years you looked to newspapers for words you looked to Barrowclough for news This is Fred Thirkell and Bob Scullion s sixth book in the postcard genre Several of their earlier books have also won City of Vancouver Heritage awards Hutchinson's Washington and Georgetown Directory ,1909

Education and Politics in the 1990s Denis Lawton,1992 Examines the ideological differences between the education policies of the two main political parties in the UK and discusses the emergence of these differences within the context of the 1988 Education Reform Act It also looks at the world wide influence of the New Right politics on education Fine Arts Market Place Paul Cummings,1977 Crisis William Edward Burghardt Du Bois,1917 Macon in Vintage Postcards Vickie Leach Prater,1999 From the 1890s through the 1920s the postcard was an extraordinarily popular means of communication and many of the postcards produced during this golden age can today be considered works of art Postcard photographers traveled the length and breadth of the nation snapping photographs of busy street scenes documenting local landmarks and assembling crowds of local children only too happy to pose for a picture These images printed as postcards and sold in general stores across the country survive as telling reminders of an important era in America s history This fascinating history of Macon Georgia showcases more than 200 of the best vintage postcards available Report of the State Auditor of Georgia Georgia. Dept. of Audits and Accounts,1956
