correspondence has been released At present there are approximately 1800 unpublished manuscript letters to and from HHR of which at least 1000 are in her own hand They form a correspondence between Australia England German Italy and the USA for the period 1874 to 1946 Within the total number there are two quite distinct and major sub groups the first 1910 14 being a collection of both sides of the correspondence between HHR and the French translator of Maurice Guest Paul Solanges the second 1911 46 letters between HHR and Mary A Kernot of Melbourne As well as the letters held in the National and Mitchell libraries the editors possess an entire sequence of letters from William Heinemann to HHR and her husband John George Robertson detailing the publication history of Ultima Thule the final volume of The Fortunes of Richard Mahoney the trilogy which cemented her international reputation They are adding to the collection almost monthly but have reason to believe that about 90% of the extant letters are now in their possession The letters as might be expected shed much new light on HHR s biography her artistic methods her personal life her friendships and antagonisms her response to Australian readers and to expatriation and her efforts to maintain a literary life apart from her personal life The series includes HHR s earliest letter her student days in Leipzig the publication of Maurice Guest The Getting of Wisdom The Fortunes of Richard Mahoney The End of a Childhood and The Young Cosima and her experience of life in wartime England Some of the most vivid letters describe her schooldays the biographical context for The Getting of Wisdom her memories of the Australian bush her relationship with Vance and Nettie Palmer her meetings with Miles Franklin her views on contemporary writing and life in wartime England In particular the letters to and from Solanges are packed with information about the writing the autobiographical roots and the meaning of Maurice Guest The letters to Kernot provide constant linkages between life in England and Australia during the most formative period for modern Australian literature including the negotiations for HHR s Nobel Prize nomination

The Concise Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature

George Watson, Behind the Mask Matthew Dennison, 2024-08-06 A dazzling new biography of Vita Sackville West the 20th century aristocrat literary celebrity devoted wife famous lover of Virginia Woolf recluse and iconoclast who defied categorization In this stunning new biography of Vita Sackville West Matthew Dennison s Behind the Mask traces the triumph and contradictions of Vita s extraordinary life His narrative charts a fascinating course from Vita s lonely childhood at Knole through her affectionate but open marriage to Harold Nicolson during which both husband and wife energetically pursued homosexual affairs Vita most famously with Virginia Woolf and through Vita s literary successes and disappointments to the famous gardens the couple created at Sissinghurst The book tells how from her privileged world of the aristocracy Sackville West brought her penchant for costume play acting and rebellion to the artistic vanguard of modern Britain Dennison is the acclaimed author of many books including a biography of Queen Victoria Here in the first biography to be written of Vita for thirty years he reveals the whole story and gets behind the beautiful mask of Vita s public achievements to reveal an often troubled persona which heroically resisted compromise on every level Drawing on wideranging sources and the extensive letters that sustained her marriage this is a compelling story of love loss and jealousy of high life and low points of binding affection and illicit passion a portrait of an extraordinary 20th century life
