Naturalist and Environmentalist R. B. Eltringham, S. K. Eltringham, 2012-04-17 This book is an autobiography based on Keith's memoirs which he wrote shortly before he died in 2006 not for publication but for his descendants who might be interested in how he spent his life He didn't think there would be wide interest but this was far from true and in fact he wrote a most interesting story of his life especially in Africa where he lived with his family for several years Keith was born in 1929 in rural Canada on the prairies of Alberta He was always passionate about animals and wanted nothing else than a life involving animals and this was something that he achieved He went to school in Bristol and was educated at Southampton University and Cambridge where he taught for several years He had a wide knowledge of the animal world and was very knowledgeable about every animal that he met He acquired an encyclopedic knowledge of the animal world and he wanted nothing more than to learn all he could about animals and to this end as a youngster he established a so called zoo in the garden Our mother was not too happy when he introduced ants to what he called Ant Island which was an upturned dust bin lid Larry Michael Haag, 2025-07-03 Highly readable and elegant Spectator Lawrence Durrell was unquestionably one of the most distinctive original and compelling literary figures of his age From his childhood in India and Burma to his

Anastasijevic,Magdalena Pfalzgraf,Hanna Teichler,2024-01-11 On what terms and concepts can we ground the comparative study of Anglophone literatures and cultures around the world today What if anything unites the novels of Witi Ihimaera the speculative fiction of Nnedi Okorafor the life writings by Stuart Hall and the emerging Anglophone Arab literature by writers like Omar Robert Hamilton This volume explores the globality of Anglophone fiction both as a conceptual framing and as a literary imaginary It highlights the diversity of lives and worlds represented in Anglophone writing as well as the diverse imaginations of transnational connections articulated in it Featuring a variety of internationally renowned scholars this book thinks through Anglophone literature not as a problematic legacy of colonial rule or as exoticizing commodity in a global literary marketplace but examines it as an inherently transcultural literary medium Contributors provide new insights into how it facilitates the articulation of divergent experiences of modernity and the critique of hierarchies and inequalities within among and beyond post colonial societies Hitler's Bastard Eric Pleasants,2012-01-27
