Gerhard Roth Materialien Zu Die Archive Des Schweigens:

Silenced Facts Bianca Theisen, 2021-10-01 In response to the silence that continues to shroud Austria's historical past Austrian literature after 1950 wants to retrace an untold history that left its marks in mental schemata and cultural clichés The question how literature can refer to the facts silenced by a political unconscious the question of literary reference and reality description lies at the core of Austrian literature since the 1950s This book traces the development of contemporary Austrian fiction from the 1950s to the 1990s showing how the Vienna Group's literary reductionism led to gesture of mere pointing in happening and performance While strongly indebted to the experimental techniques of the Vienna Group later Austrian authors such as Thomas Bernhard Peter Handke Peter Rosei and Gerhard Roth employ literary forms and extra literary media prone to the indexical in an attempt to cut through the net of linguistic and cultural clichés alluding to the microfascisms latent in common percepts and indexing a reality that eludes plain description Encyclopedia of German

Literature Matthias Konzett, 2015-05-11 Designed to provide English readers of German literature the opportunity to familiarize themselves with both the established canon and newly emerging literatures that reflect the concerns of women and ethnic minorities the Encyclopedia of German Literature includes more than 500 entries on writers individual work and topics essential to an understanding of this rich literary tradition Drawing on the expertise of an international group of experts the essays in the encyclopedia reflect developments of the latest scholarship in German literature culture and history and society In addition to the essays author entries include biographies and works lists and works entries provide information about first editions selected critical editions and English language translations All entries conclude with a list of further readings Gerhard Roth Gerhard Roth, 1992 Gerhard Roth and the Graz Literary Revival Simon Collis Ryan, 2003

Modern Austrian Literature through the Lens of Adaptation Catriona Firth, 2012-01-01 For decades postwar Austrian literature has been measured against and moulded into a series of generic categories and grand cultural narratives from nostalgic restoration literature of the 1950s through the socially critical anti Heimat novel to recent literary reckonings with Austria's Nazi past Peering through the lens of film adaptation this book rattles the generic shackles imposed by literary history and provides an entirely new critical perspective on Austrian literature Its original methodological approach challenges the primacy of written sources in existing scholarship and uses the distortions generated by the shift in medium as a productive starting point for literary analysis Five case studies approach canonical texts in post war Austrian literature by Gerhard Fritsch Franz Innerhofer Gerhard Roth Elfriede Jelinek and Robert Schindel through close readings of their cinematic adaptations concentrating on key areas of narratological concern plot narrative perspective authorship and post modern ontologies Setting the texts within the historical cultural and political discourses that define the Alpine Republic this study investigates fundamental aspects of Austrian national identity such as its Habsburg and National Socialist legacies

W.G. Sebald's Hybrid Poetics Lynn L. Wolff, 2014-04-02 This book offers a new critical perspective on the perpetual problem of literature s relationship to reality and in particular on the sustained tension between literature and historiography The scholarly and literary works of W G Sebald 1944 2001 serve as striking examples for this discussion for the way in which they demonstrate the emergence of a new hybrid discourse of literature as historiography This book critically reconsiders the claims and aims of historiography by re evaluating core questions of the literary discourse and by assessing the ethical imperative of literature in the 20th and 21st centuries Guided by an inherently interdisciplinary framework this book elucidates the interplay of epistemological aesthetic and ethical concerns that define Sebald s criticism and fiction Appropriate to the way in which Sebald s works challenge us to rethink the boundaries between discourses genres disciplines and media this work proceeds in a methodologically non dogmatic way drawing on hermeneutics semiotics narratology and discourse theory In addition to contextualizing Sebald within postwar literature in German the book is the first English language study to consider Sebald s uvre as a whole Of interest for Sebald experts and enthusiasts literary scholars and historians concerned with the problematic of representing the past
