Landwehr in the territories of the Austrian Crown and Insurrection in the territories of the Crown of St Stephen At the end Austria entered into war with the most powerful military force of the whole Napoleonic Period in numbers of fighters an effort which hardly seemed possible and which surprised the world Unfortunately its three armies and the Landwehr did not surprised Bonaparte who kicked

West Point History of World War II, Vol. 1 The United States Military Academy,2015-11-03 An outstanding new military history of the first half of World War II featuring a rich array of images exclusive graphics superb new maps and expert analysis commissioned by the United States Military Academy to teach the art of war to West Point cadets Since 1836 United States Military Academy texts have been the gold standard for teaching military history and the operational art of war Now the USMA has developed a new military history series for the public featuring the story of World War II in two volumes of which this is the first The West Point History of World War II combines the expertise of preeminent historians with hundreds of maps and images many created for this volume or selected from Army collections The first volume offers a balanced narrative analyzing the rising tide of Axis conquest from 1939 to mid 1942 ranging from battlefield decisions to operational and strategic plans all set in their proper political context The closing chapter provides a thematic treatment of the mobilization of the warring nations economies and home fronts for the conduct of total war The West Point History of World War II has been tested checked and polished by West Point cadets faculty and graduates to make this the best military history of its kind

The Blitzkrieg Legend Karl-Heinz Frieser,2013-04-11 Here for the first time in English is an illuminating new German perspective on the decisive Blitzkrieg campaign of 1940 Karl Heinz Frieser s account provides the definitive explanation for Germany s startling success and the equally surprising and rapid military collapse of France and Britain on the European continent In a little over a month Germany decisively defeated the Allies in battle a task that had not been achieved in four years of brutal fighting during World War I First published in 1995 as the official German history of the 1940 campaign in the west the book goes beyond standard explanations to show that German victory was not inevitable and French defeat was not preordained Contrary to the usual accounts of the campaign Frieser illustrates that the military systems of both Germany and France were solid and that their campaign planning was sound The key to victory or defeat he argues was the execution of operational plans both preplanned and ad hoc amid the eternal Clausewitzian combat factors of friction and the fog of war Frieser shows why on the eve of the campaign the British and French leaders had good cause to be confident and why many German generals were understandably concerned that disaster was looming for them This study explodes many of the myths concerning German Blitzkrieg warfare and the planning for the 1940 campaign A groundbreaking new interpretation of a topic that has long interested students of military history it is being published in cooperation with the Association of the U S Army

The History of the Second Division 1914-1918 - Volume 1 Everard Wyrall,2013-01-02 Of the six pre war regular divisions only two 2nd and 5th published a detailed history of their part in the Great War The 2nd Division landed in France with the original BEF as part of I Corps

Haig between 11 and 16 August 1914 It was not directly engaged at Mons and such casualties as were sustained 10 killed 80 wounded were from artillery fire During the retreat it was engaged at Landrecies 4th Guards Brigade and Villers Cotterets but its first major battles were at the Marne and the Aisne and subsequently it fought in all the battles of First Ypres During the three months September to the end of November 1914 it suffered some 8 500 casualties At the end of 1914 the division moved south to the Bethune sector where it remained throughout 1915 still in I Corps It was at Festubert Loos and the Hohenzollern Redoubt which in all cost almost 9 000 casualties In February 1916 it moved down to the Vimy sector in IV Corps where it stayed till July the next move was to the Somme Here the division had a protracted spell till March 1917 during which time it was in action at Delville Wood Guillemont and the Ancre incurring nearly 8 000 casualties The 2nd was one of the few divisions not involved Third Ypres July November 1917 but it had earlier taken part in the April May Arras offensive and later in November December in the Battle of Cambrai Throughout 1918 the division was in the line for much of the time in the German offensive and in the Advance to Victory its final action was the Battle of the Selle 23 25 October The final casualty figure was around 45 000 Seventeen VCs were won and two of the commanders went on to greater things Monro to Commander in Chief India and Horne to command of First Army The division took part in the march to the Rhine occupying the area around Cologne In March 1919 the division ceased to exist as such when it was redesignated The Light Division The history is a very good one by probably the most prolific of all the authors of formation and regimental histories of the Great War The detailed account is easy to follow and the Wyrall has taken care to name many individuals in the actions and events he is describing Casualty details are given in appendices and in the text and there is a nominal roll of divisional staff with all the changes throughout the war
