German Poetry A Critical Anthology:

German poetry Robert Marcellus Browning, 1962 German Poetry Robert Marcellus Browning, 1962 Anna Hubbard: Out of the Shadows Mia Cunningham, Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1967 Includes Part 1 Number 2 Books and Pamphlets Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals July December International Anthologies of Literature in Translation Harald Kittel, 1995-01-01 The Palgrave Handbook of German Idealism M. Altman, 2017-12-01 The Palgrave Handbook of German Idealism features essays from leading scholars on German philosophy It is the most comprehensive secondary source available covering not only the full range of work by Kant Fichte Schelling and Hegel but also idealists such as Reinhold and Schopenhauer critics such as Jacobi Maimon and the German Romantics The Jews and British Romanticism S. Spector, 2016-04-30 Expanding the perspective initiated by British Romanticism and the Jews History Culture Literature 0 312 29522 7 this volume explores more deeply the complexities inherent in the relationship between the British and Jewish cultures as initiated in the Romantic Period in England though extending to the present in the Middle East Paradox, Aphorism and Desire in Novalis and Derrida Clare Kennedy, 2008 Building on recent investigations into affinities between early German Romanticism and French post structuralism this study brings together the work of Jacques Derrida with the writings of one of early Romanticisms most important theorists Friedrich von Hardenberg 1772 1801 better known as Novalis In contrast to recent criticism which traces the historical path from Romanticism to modern theory in broad strokes this book undertakes comparative readings of Novalis and Derridas texts on literature and philosophy The book focuses on the significance both writers accord to paradox and argues that readings which are attuned to paradox can better appreciate the proximity of Romanticism and post structuralism As well as their affirmation of paradox the texts of Novalis and Derrida testify to a profound respect for the Other and the close readings of selected texts reveal remarkable similarities in their thinking on literature philosophy and representation and on the intricate interrelation between language identity and desire Mind's World Alexander M. Schlutz, 2010-05-01 Winner of the 2009 International Conference on Romanticism s Jean Pierre Barricelli Award for the best book in Romanticism studies As the mental faculty that mediates between self and world mind and body the senses and the intellect imagination is indispensable for modern models of subjectivity From Ren Descartes s Meditations to the aesthetic and philosophical systems of the Romantic period to think about the subject necessarily means to address the problem of imagination In close readings of Descartes Kant Fichte Hardenberg Novalis and Coleridge and with a sustained return to the origins of the discourse about imagination in Greek antiquity Alexander Schlutz demonstrates that neither the unity of the subject itself nor the unity of the philosophical systems that are based on it can be conceptualized without recourse to imagination Yet philosophers like Descartes and Kant must deny imagination any such foundational role because of its dangerous connection to the body the senses and the unruly passions which threatens the desired autonomy of the rational subject The modern subject is simultaneously dependent upon and constructed in opposition to imagination and the resulting ambivalence about the faculty is one of the fundamental conditions of modern models of subjectivity Schlutz's readings of the Romantic poet philosophers Coleridge and Hardenberg highlight that also their texts are not free of fears about the faculty's disruptive potential and its connection to the body While imagination is now openly enlisted to produce the aesthetic unity of subjectivity it still threatens to unravel and destroy a subject that needs to keep the body and its desires at bay in order to secure its rational and moral autonomy The dark abyss of a self not in control of its thoughts feelings and desires is not overcome by the philosophical glorification of the subject's powers of imagination Hoffman's Index to

Poetry Herbert H. Hoffman, 1985 No descriptive material is available for this title Discordant Melody Lorraine Gorrell, 2002-09-30 Esteemed by many of his most distinguished contemporaries including Arnold Schoenberg Alexander Zemlinsky 1871-1942 was a protégé of Brahms and Mahler Despite this he was overshadowed by the composers of the second Viennese school and for many years after his death was remembered merely as the brother-in-law of Schoenberg But with centenary celebrations of Zemlinsky's birth scholars began a careful examination of his works and realized they had discovered a forgotten master Zemlinsky's wonderful melodic gift was manifested in operas choral works chamber music and symphonic pieces but was realized most fully in his more than one hundred songs In this important new study the first such work in English Lorraine Gorrell focuses on these songs revealing the ways in which they represented a bridge between the 19th century romantic lied and the 20th century avant garde Of interest to scholars studying both the German art song and the development of the second Viennese school Gorrell's work uses Zemlinsky's songs as a lens through which to examine an important highly influential musical figure Chicorel Index to Poetry in Anthologies and Collections--retrospective Marietta Chicorel, 1975

Imperialist Imagination Sara L. Friedrichsmeyer, Sara Lennox, Susanne M. Zantop, 2025-10-01 Race relations are a controversial topic in today's Germany Have Germans learned from the past How far back must one go to understand the tensions prejudices and strategies that have marked race relations in the recently unified nation The Imperialist Imagination explores the German preoccupation with racial and ethnic differences throughout the past two centuries in a colonial and postcolonial context Germany's belated national unification in 1870 its short colonial period 1884-1918 and the loss of its colonies as a consequence of World War I rather than through wars of liberation generated very different colonial and postcolonial conditions from those in Britain and France This volume's sixteen essays investigate how as a consequence of these conditions Germans imagined their relationship to racial and ethnic others how they supported and contested colonization during the colonial period how their colonial fantasies fed into the Nazis racial and expansionary policies after the loss of German colonies and how they represent their relationship to German minorities and foreigners within and outside Germany today The contributors include scholars in literature history art history political science philosophy ethnography film popular culture photography and theater The anthology will appeal not only to Germanists but to all those interested in postcolonial and cultural studies Sara Friedrichsmeyer is Professor of German University of Cincinnati Sara Lennox is Professor of German University of Massachusetts Susanne Zantop is Professor of German and Comparative Literature Dartmouth College

Syncopations Jed Rasula, 2004-05-18 An analysis of the sustaining vitality behind contemporary American poetry from 1975 to the 2003 these 12 essays examine both exemplary innovators and the social context in which innovation is resisted acclaimed or taken for granted

Life's Golden Tree Thomas Kerth, George C. Schoolfield, 1996 Essays offering new insights into important topics and figures in German literature from the middle ages to the present day The essays in this volume contributed by well known Germanists and those working in the field of comparative literature take fresh looks at key figures and issues in German literary and cultural studies from the medieval to the post modernist period

The Mediatization of War and Peace Christoph Cornelissen, Marco Mondini, 2021-02-08 During the First World War mass media achieved an enormous and continuously growing importance in all belligerent countries Newspaper illustrated magazines comics pamphlets and instant books fictional works photography and the new born theater of imagery the cinema were crucial in order to create a heroic vision of the events to mobilize and maintain the consensus on the war But their role was pivotal also in creating the image of the war's end and finally together with a widespread new literary genre the war memoirs to shape the collective memory of the conflict for the next generations Even before November 1918 the media raised high expectations for a multifaceted peace a new global order the beginning of a peaceful era the occasion for a regenerating apocalypse Likewise in the following decades particularly war literature and cinema were pivotal to reverse the icon of the Great War as an epic crusade and a glorious chapter of the national history and to create the hegemonic image of a senseless carnage The Mediatization of War and Peace focalizes on the central role played by mass media in the tortuous transition to the post war period as well as on the profound disenchantment generated by their prophesies

German Film & Literature Eric Rentschler, 2013-10-15 First Published in 1986 This collection of essays by an international team of scholars is the first sustained investigation in any language of the historical interactions between German film and literature It is a book about adaptations and transformations about why filmmakers adapt certain material at certain times The major impetus at work is the desire to expand the field of adaptation study to include sociological theoretical and historical dimensions and to bring a livelier regard for intertextuality to the studies of German film and literature It is concerned with the ways in which filmmakers in Germany from Pabst and von Sternberg to Fassbinder Herzog and Sanders Brahms have engaged and been engaged by literary history

Image in Outline Gisela Brinker-Gabler, 2012-08-09 This new study introduces the reader into Lou Andreas Salom's critical and creative engagement with modern thought Through detailed explorations of some of her major texts Brinker Gabler examines Andreas Salom's unique perspective within contemporary discourses attentive to meaning perception memory and the unconscious Making use of conceptual frameworks of Irigaray and Benjamin Freud and

Kristeva among others Brinker Gabler argues that Andreas Salome displaces dominant visions of gender and sexuality culture religion and creativity with multifaceted revisions through the female lens of a creative thinker With her aesthetics of the in visible as Brinker Gabler calls it Andreas Salom seeks to retrieve the multilayered past that is embedded in the present and to give positive accounts of sexual and cultural difference experience narcissism and becoming

Philosophical Romanticism Nikolas Kompridis, 2006-09-27 Philosophical Romanticism is one of the first books to address the relationship between philosophy and romanticism an area which is currently undergoing a major revival This collection of specially written articles by world class philosophers explores the contribution of romantic thought to topics such as freedom autonomy and subjectivity memory and imagination pluralism and practical reasoning modernism scepticism and irony art and ethics and cosmology time and technology While the roots of romanticism are to be found in early German idealism Philosophical Romanticism shows that it is not a purely European phenomenon the development of romanticism can be traced through to North American philosophy in the era of Emerson and Dewey and up to the current work of Stanley Cavell and Richard Rorty The articles in this collection suggest that philosophical romanticism offers a compelling alternative to both the reductionist tendencies of the naturalism in analytic philosophy and deconstruction and other forms of scepticism found in continental philosophy This outstanding collection will be of interest to those studying philosophy literature and nineteenth and twentieth century thought
