German Angst:

German Angst Frank Biess, 2020 While fear and anxiety have historically been associated with authoritarian regimes Frank Biess demonstrates the ambivalent role of these emotions in the democratization of West Germany where fears and anxieties about the country's catastrophic past and uncertain future both undermined democracy and stabilized the emerging Federal Republic

Emotions Across Languages and Cultures Anna Wierzbicka, 1999-11-18 This fascinating book explores the bodily expression of emotion in worldwide and culture specific contexts

German Structural Pacifism Joseph Verbovszky, 2024-03-30 German Structural Pacifism examines the influence of Germany's lessons of the past on its security policy since reunification in an approach that is both novel and timely in the context of the Russia Ukraine War Germany's lessons of the past provide contradictory right ways for Germany to overcome its authoritarian past and serve to legitimate political interests in security policy decision making Reconciling competing political interests and contradictory narratives results in a security policy that prioritizes the right way to do security policy is over its effectiveness It is the author's great merit to have defined the past 30 years of German security policy under the term Structural Pacifism I find this conclusive

Sinke Neitzel Chair of Military History at the University of Potsdam An accurate depiction of Germany's systemic neglect of its armed forces since reunification demonstrating why it is no surprise that our armed forces are naked A follow up including the Zeitenwende would be very interesting

Hans Peter Barthels President of the German Society for Security Policy The book succinctly and accurately addresses the lack of an honest debate on the use of military force in the domain of German security policy and explores its negative impact on military decision making from political strategy all the way down to the tactical level

Volker Wieker Former Chief of Defense of the German Federal Armed Forces 2009-2018

Fear in the German-Speaking World, 1600-2000 Thomas Kehoe, Michael Pickering, 2020-02-20 This book addresses the nature and role of fear in the German world from the early modern period through to the 20th century Offering the first collection that centres fear in the historical analysis of central Europe since 1600 these essays demonstrate the importance of emotional experience to the study of the past Fear has been at the centre of many of the most important historical events in this region witch hunts religious conflicts invasions and ultra nationalism in the form of the Nazi regime This book explores ways in which fear was understood developed and negotiated throughout these historical contexts and how people of the German world coped with it From the fear of vampires to the loss of national sovereignty pestilence gypsies and criminals Fear in the German Speaking World 1600-2000 draws connections between cases over a period of 400 years and considers fear alongside the history of emotions more generally In doing so the chapters reveal a complex evolving construction of fear that is universally human but also dependent upon its cultural and historical context

National Identity and Geopolitical Visions Gertjan Dijink, 2002-11-01 From the Third Reich to Bosnia nationalism a sense of a nation's place in the world has been responsible for much bloodshed Nationalism may be manipulated by political leaders or governments but it springs from the people. Something in the history and environment of a national group creates it. This volume aims to locate and analyze the myth of national identity and its value in creating pride, deflecting fear, or legitimating aggression. A range of essays on Britain, the United States, Germany, Russia, Iraq, Serbia, Argentina, Australia, and India illustrate the different manifestations of the geographical imagination across the countries of the world. Metaphors of ANGER across Languages: Universality and Variation Zoltan Kövecses, Réka Benczes, Veronika Széldi, 2024-11-04. Anger is one of the basic emotions of human emotional experience, informing and guiding many of our choices and actions. Although it has received considerable scholarly attention in a number of disciplines, including linguistics, a basic question has still remained unresolved: why do variations in the folk model of anger exist across languages if it is indeed a basic emotion rooted in largely universal bodily experience? By drawing on a wide selection of comparable linguistic data from dozens of languages, including a number of less researched languages, this volume provides the most comprehensive account of what is universal and what is variable in the folk model of anger and why. It also investigates the role that metonymies might play in the emergence of anger-related metaphors and in what ways context influences or shapes anger metaphors and thereby the resulting folk model of anger. No such volume exists in the cognitive linguistic literature on anger or on emotions for that matter. The book is thus an essential contribution to the study of anger and will serve as basic reading for any researcher interested in how the conceptualization of anger is constructed via the interplay of bodily experience, language, and the larger cultural context. Character Education in Europe: Challenges and Opportunities Verónica Fernández, Tom Harrison, Kristján Kristjánsson, Roland Bernhard, 2024-05-03. The book aims to highlight the distinct challenges and opportunities that character education faces across several European countries, including Austria, Czech Republic, Estonia, Germany, Italy, Latvia, Portugal, Slovakia, and Spain. By examining character education landscapes in these diverse contexts, this work provides insights into specific hurdles and potential avenues for advancement in promoting character development and positive impact across the region and beyond. Through a detailed analysis of country reports, practices, and research findings, the book sheds light on varying approaches to character education. It emphasizes the need for tailored strategies that resonate with each country's cultural, social, and educational landscapes. These approaches, including traditional, liberal, psychological, and neo-Aristotelian, share a common goal of fostering strong character dispositions but diverge in their philosophical foundations, pedagogical methods, and political assumptions. While European character education grapples with significant challenges, its multifaceted approaches, particularly the neo-Aristotelian, offer robust strategies for developing character dispositions. By overcoming these challenges and harnessing the highlighted opportunities, character education in Europe has the potential to effectively address contemporary educational and societal needs and contribute to more flourishing school environments. The End of the World Ulrich H. J. Körtner, 1995-01-01. In this book, Ulrich Körtner addresses the issue of apocalyptic anxiety by offering a theological and philosophical evaluation of the apocalyptic. In particular, Körtner looks at how theology responds in pastoral sensitivity should deal with apocalyptic fears and anxieties Kortner concludes that real meaning and hope for the world is possible only after the world's inhabitants deal constructively with the stark reality of the world's end When Lily Ponds Ripple Anne-Marie Fitzwilliam, 2023-10-13 ENTWINED LIVES A SECRET THAT RIPS THEM APART TWINS ON A TURBULENT VOYAGE OF DISCOVERY A sugar plantation a waterlily pond and a decades old deception are the backdrop for When Lily Ponds Ripple It is a forceful narrative about the West Indian twins Florence and Charlotte Montague Their rivalry for the same man underscores just how close loyalty and betrayal are The revelation of a family secret takes the Barbadian sisters from their sheltered island to London and Germany In Frankfurt Florence becomes a notable author while Charlie's career leads her from the London stage to Hollywood Despite their geographical separation the sisters cannot escape one another far less their shared history To face the future they must confront the past together Zeisberger's Indian Dictionary: English, German, Iroquois (the Onondaga) and Algonquin (the Delaware) David Zeisberger, 1887
