The Encyclopedia of Best Films Jay Robert Nash, 2019-10-23 This all-inclusive A-Z encyclopedia by one of the world's foremost experts on cinema provides comprehensive annotations of the best films produced from 1914 on. The work offers more than 5,000 three to five star entries: three stars good, four stars excellent, five stars masterpiece. And yes, author Jay Robert Nash has viewed every single one of them as well as many more that did not make the cut. In addition to a précis, each film's entry also includes a listing of the cast as well as the key principles involved in production from the director to the hair stylist. Especially unique to this book is a rating system that helps parents determine whether or not a film is appropriate for their children. Unlike the industry rating system which can be influenced by studio lobbying, Nash objectively evaluates each film and confers upon it one of four recommendations for viewing: recommended, acceptable, cautionary, and unacceptable. Backmatter includes a list of top films by genre: i.e. animated, drama, sports, mystery, adventure, etc. as well as an annotated name index listing all persons mentioned along with their dates of birth and death. Rounding out this essential volume for the film buff are over 500 still photos from the author's private collection.

He also considers the problems posed by jet aircraft in Korea and the use of Patriot missiles in the Persian Gulf. He covers anti-guerrilla operations, doctrine, industrial activities, and equipment as well as the development of commercial airlines. Everything World War I Karen Latchana Kenney, Edward G. Lengel, 2014 A one hundredth anniversary tribute introduces World War I's key events, major battles, and most prominent players, incorporating photography, maps, and an interactive glossary. Air Force Gunners Turner Publishing, 1994 History of the airforce gunners from early days through World War II and later. Watson's Really Big WWII Almanac Patrick Watson, 2007 This book covers events that have occurred throughout history that pertain to the Second World War. The dates range from the 1800s to 2007. It uses the same format and contains the same type of information as Volume 1, but it covers the period from July to December, whereas Volume 1 concentrates on the first 6 months of the year. It was also the 2008 North American Book Exchange's Pinnacle Book Award winner in the Reference Category.
