Constructing and Reconstructing History in Twentieth-Century German Architecture. Alexander

Luckmann, Volker M. Welter, 2025-02-11. The battle in architecture between the internationalist voices of modernism and the localized resistance which favored traditional technologies and regional precedents reflected in microcosm the violent and complex histories of twentieth-century Germany. The chapters in this book span the years from 1902 to 1991 and interrogate the ways in which architecture constructed and reconstructed these histories with a primary focus on those voices that were opposed to the dogmas of modernism. All translated into English for the first time, the chapters reflect the changing eras and contours of the German nation. They were written in the German Empire 1871-1918, the Weimar Republic 1918-1933, the Third Reich 1933-1945, the Federal Republic of Germany and the German Democratic Republic (GDR) which both existed from 1949 to 1990, and finally the reunified Germany that came into being in 1990 when the former GDR and the reunified Berlin joined the Federal Republic of Germany. The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Art in Translation. Christie's Art Deco. Fiona Gallagher, Michael Jeffrey, Simon Andrews, Nicolette White, 2000. The impact of Art Deco was felt in every sphere of the decorative arts. This volume examines one of the most important periods of design in the 20th century and relates the story of every aspect of this movement of the 1920s and 30s. Meeting of Minds, 2002.
