Sammons, 1989 Sturm und Drang: Lenz, Wagner, Klinger, and Schiller Alan Leidner, 1992-01-01 Parzival V2 (p) Wolfram (von Eschenbach), 1991-11-01 Parzival an Arthurian romance completed by Wolfram von Eschenbach in the first years of the thirteenth century is one of the foremost works of German literature and a classic that can stand with the great masterpieces of the world. The most important aspects of human existence worldly and spiritual are presented in strikingly modern terms against the panorama of battles and tournaments and Parzival's long search for the Grail. The world of knighthood of love and loyalty and human endeavor despite the cruelty and suffering of life is constantly mingling with the world of the Grail affirming the inherent unity between man's temporal condition and his quest for something beyond human existence. Siegfried Kracauer, or, The Allegories of Improvisation Miguel Vedda, 2021-05-13

This book analyses multiple facets of Kracauer's work comprehending the essayistic narrative philosophical theoretical and critical writings and putting special emphasis on some aspects: the phenomenology of metropolis the theory of historiographic method the reflections on the crisis of the subject and the emergence of a new subjectivity the new forms of perception and aesthetic behaviour in late capitalism the function of critic intellectuals the sociology of the middle classes the theory of fascism the aesthetical and sociological reflections on literary genres the politicization of melancholy. An original feature of this book is the attention it pays to the links between Kracauer's theoretical and critical writings and the traditions of heterodox Marxism against a habitual tendency to obliterate the political and emancipatory dimension in the German author.

Bertolt Brecht Bertolt Brecht, 2003-11-26 Long in preparation and in considerable demand here are the essential poems and prose of one of the giants of 20th century world literature. Following an authoritative introduction by Reinhold Grimm the volume includes German and English poems on facing pages. Crime and Madness in Modern Austria Rebecca S.

Thomas, 2021-02-03 This collection of essays explores the changing history rhetoric politics and representation of crime and madness in modern Austria. From the emergence of Viennese modernism to the post modern moment the myths metaphors and realities of crime and madness have unfolded in the shadow of larger cultural questions regarding cultural norms gender war and national identity. Historically based contributions illuminate such diverse cultural realities as the evolution of psychiatry as medical practice asylum practices in the early twentieth century and Austrian participation in and responses to terror and war crimes. From these investigations proceeds the clear insight that cultural responses to crime and madness are often steeped in mythmaking as much as objective policy and practice. Conversely literary and metaphorical representations of crime and madness reveal attitudes and cultural realities about the Austrian society that produced them and which they reflect. Specialists from the fields of Austrian history literature and culture studies have collaborated to produce this truly interdisciplinary volume which responses to crime and madness are often steeped in mythmaking as much as objective policy and practice. Conversely literary and metaphorical representations of crime and madness reveal attitudes and cultural realities about the Austrian society that produced them and which they reflect. Kafka's The Metamorphosis and Other Writings

Franz Kafka, 2002-01-01 This essential collection of Franz Kafka's writings includes classic as well as new translations. The Metamorphosis The Judgment A Country Doctor In the Penal Colony From A Hunger Artist First Sorrow A Little Woman A Hunger Artist Josephine the Singer or The Mouse People The Hunter Gracchus The Great Wall of China Letter to His Father      Realism's Others Eva Aldea, Geoffrey Baker, 2010-07-12 For at least a century scholarship on realist narrative and occasional polemics against realist narrative have assumed that realism promotes the values of sameness against those of otherness and that it does so by use of a narrative mode that excludes certain epistemologies ideologies and ways of thinking However the truth is more complex than that as the essays in this volume all demonstrate Realism's Others examines the various strategies by which realist narratives create the idea of difference whether that difference is registered in terms of class ethnicity epistemology nationality or gender The authors in this collection examine in detail not just the fact of otherness in some canonical realist and canonical magical realist and postmodern novels but the actual means by which that otherness is established by the text These essays suggest that neither realist narrative nor narratives positioned as anti realist take otherness for granted rather the texts discussed here actively create difference and this creation of difference often occasions severe difficulties for the novels representational schema How does one represent different types of knowledge other aesthetic modes or other spaces for example in texts whose epistemology has long been seen as secular and empirical whose aesthetic mode has always been approached as pure descriptive mimesis and whose settings are largely domestic These essays all begin with a certain collision of nationalities of classes of representational matrices of religions and go on to chart the challenges that this collision presents to our ideas or stereotypes of realism or to the possibilities of writing against and beyond realism This question motivates examination of key realist or social realist texts in some of these essays by Honor de Balzac George Eliot Franz Grillparzer Theodor Storm Gottfried Keller Theodor Fontane Wilhelm Raabe Mar a Amparo Ruiz de Burton Henry James William Dean Howells Charles Chesnutt Theodore Dreiser H T Tsiang Alan Sillitoe and Richard Yates However it is no less central a question in certain non realist texts which engage realist aims to a surprising degree often to debate them openly some of these essays discuss in this light fantastic magical realist and postmodern works by Abram Tertz Paul Auster Alejo Carpentier Toni Morrison Gabriel Garc a M rquez Salman Rushdie and A S Byatt Realism becomes more than an aesthetic aim or narrative mode It becomes rather a value evoked and discussed by all of the works analyzed here in order to reveal its impact on fiction's treatment of ethnicity nationality ideology space gender and social class      Narrative Purpose in the Novella Judith Leibowitz, 2013-11-05 No detailed description
