Nineteenth-Century English, German and Russian Literature Kathryn L. Ambrose, 2015-09-29 Kathryn Ambrose offers a new approach to the Woman Question in mid to late nineteenth century English German and Russian literature Using a methodological framework based on feminist theory and post structuralism she provides a re vision of canonical texts such as Jane Eyre Wuthering Heights Middlemarch Effi Briest Fathers and Children and Anna Karenina alongside lesser known works by Emily and Charlotte Bront George Eliot Theodor Storm Theodor Fontane Ivan Turgenev and Leo Tolstoy Her exploration of the semiotics of barriers as opposed to the established approach of the semiotics of space makes for a rewarding reading of this period of literature and establishes new cross cultural and literary connections between the three countries Focus On: 100 Most Popular Knights of the Garter Wikipedia contributors, Responding to Modern Genocide Mark D. Kielsgard, 2015-07-30 Developments in the understanding and treatment of genocide through the twentieth century have involved a combination of politics public opinion social trends and economic development and led to the substantive law of genocide and the assumption of international jurisdiction This book analyzes incidences of genocide and mass atrocities focusing on the political factors involved in modern counter genocide efforts Drawing on incidences of genocide and mass atrocity such as the Holocaust the Rwandan genocide and the Armenian genocide Mark Kielsgard adopts a conceptual model that reveals the political factors which impact the international law of genocide such as barriers and catalysts to transitional justice and the politics of genocide denial As a work which provides a focused picture of those influences and their significance to genocide studies this book will be of great use and interest to students and researchers in international criminal law conflict studies and conflict resolution

World War II, Russia, 1855-1991 Peter Oxley, 2001 Written for the AS A2 examinations this book focuses on exam board selected topics It covers almost 150 years of Russian history from Alexander II through Glasnost to the modern times It deals the period 1895 1941 with separate chapters on the Russian Revolution Lenin and Stalin Animal law in the Third Reich Martina Pluda, 2019-05-27 What do National Socialism and animal law have in common Indeed when talking about animal welfare and species conservation one cannot overlook the fact that the laws emanated in the Third Reich were amongst the first to regulate these matters in a structured and unified manner For obvious reasons though the topic of animal protection in Nazi Germany has been overshadowed by the human tragedy which occurred in this period of history How could the Nazis have been concerned about animals whilst perpetrating appalling acts against humans It would be easy to dismiss their benevolent disposition toward animals as hypocritical Nevertheless several associations can be made between the German attitudes towards nature the Nazi ideological and behavioural dynamics and the subsequent provisions Undoubtedly the question on the authenticity of the motivations behind the Nazi animal welfare and protection movement is difficult to answer However there are enough references to give some indication as to their true intentions to create a progressive legislative framework or a legal veil for propaganda From German Romanticism to anti-Semitism this book

bridges the gap between two seemingly unrelated topics Britain, 1846-1964 Martin Roberts, 2001 The aim of this book is to explain how Britain's circumstances changed between 1846-1964 Britain in 1846 was by far the richest nation in the world In 1964 Britain was comparatively much less rich than the USA and though amongst the world's richest nations was losing ground to Japan and to Western Europe Because of her wealth and her navy Britain in 1846 was the most powerful nation in the world Britain in 1964 was dwarfed by the superpowers of the USA and the USSR The British Empire of the 1840s reflected Britain's power By 1964 the Empire was collapsing Only one in five men and no women could vote in the Britain of 1840s By 1964 Britain was fully democratic with all adults entitled to vote In a period of a little over a century these were some of the changes to which Britain had to adapt It was a period that marked a substantial fall in Britain's comparative power and prosperity in the world War, Nation, Memory Keith A. Crawford, Stuart J. Foster, 2007-12-01 The Second World War stands as the most devastating and destructive global conflict in human history More than 60 nations representing 1.7 billion people or three quarters of the world's population were consumed by its horror Not surprisingly therefore World War II stands as a landmark episode in history education throughout the world and its prominent place in school history textbooks is almost guaranteed As this book demonstrates however the stories that nations choose to tell their young about World War II do not represent a universally accepted truth about events during the war Rather wartime narratives contained in school textbooks typically are selected to instil in the young a sense of national pride common identity and shared collective memory To understand this process War Nation Memory describes and evaluates school history textbooks from many nations deeply affected by World War II including China France Germany Japan USA and the United Kingdom It critically examines the very different and complex perspectives offered in many nations and analyses the ways in which textbooks commonly serve as instruments of socialisation and in some cases propaganda Above all War Nation Memory demonstrates that far from containing neutral knowledge history textbooks prove fascinating cultural artefacts consciously shaped and legitimated by powerful ideological cultural and sociopolitical forces dominant in the present The Progressive Revolution Ellis Washington, 2016-12-13 His tenth book The Progressive Revolution Volume V continues his legal historical and literary series based on Natural Law Natural Rights and the original political philosophy of the constitutional Framers and original jurisprudence of the U S Supreme Court Washington systematically chronicles both the historical significance and political deconstruction that the Progressive Revolution or the Progressive Age circa 1860 present has perpetrated against Western Civilization and American society even to this day These volumes are a collection of selected essays articles and Socratic dialogues from Washington's weekly columns published in RenewAmerica.com an essential news and opinion website of primarily conservative writers and ideas This opus Volume V 2014-15 Writings which rather than being arranged chronologically by date are organized topically according to their subject matter of 16 intellectual disciplines including Law Politics Foreign Policy Philosophy Aesthetics the Academy Religion Economics Science Medicine Math
