American Journalists in Hitler's Germany Norman Domeier, 2025 The first book to critically examine American journalists and media companies roles in Hitler's Germany reigniting the debate on the relationship between political power and the media Despite Hitler's international use of propaganda and despite the power of the US press historians have neglected American journalists activity in Nazi Germany American media companies expanded their presence in Germany after 1933 and the Associated Press AP conducted business with Hitler's regime throughout the war Norman Domeier's study now in English is the first to examine critically and in detail the roles of American journalists and media companies in Hitler's Germany showing that they knew about but kept secret the plans for rearmament the occupation of the Rhineland the annexation of Austria the invasions of Denmark Norway and the Soviet Union The book documents the companionship between Adolf Hitler and Karl Henry von Wiegand chief German correspondent of the Hearst press who was the first and last American to interview him Most important it details the secret exchange of news photographs discovered by Domeier in 2017 between the AP and the Nazis from 1942 45 Thousands of AP photos were used in the Nazi press usually with anti American or anti Semitic spin while the AP distributed ca 40 000 Nazi photographs to US newspapers Domeier s book reignites the debate on the relationship between political power and the media opening up new perspectives on the political and cultural history of journalism beyond one sided idealizations The Complete Home Learning Sourcebook
