Love From Edna Carr Green, 2016-06-29 This book is about surviving all the changes that took place in my life and in the World during the 1960s to 1990s I had always written letters because when I was young that was the only way to communicate Telephones were rare and calls were expensive Invitations condolences thank you notes and love letters were all written After I learned to type I worked in an office and every letter of course had to have a carbon copy Somehow this stuck and when I married and started moving around I always made carbon copies of my letters In the beginning I wrote to my parents then my sister and friends and then to my children when they went to boarding school These communications were all copied and I still have files of letters from far away places all looking rather faded now They have been a useful tool when my memory failed as it often does but it does mean that if my descendants ever want to check up on me they can discover what life was like for an ordinary woman in 1968 and how hard it was send their children off to boarding school even though by then they saw them every holiday and not once every four years as had been the case a few years earlier

Classified! Nigel West,2024-02-29 Over the past fifty years Nigel West has been involved in almost every espionage related investigation breakthrough or revelation that you can think of His molehunts have led to the unmasking of spies within MI5 MI6 and the CIA and the identification of numerous others some of whom were crucial to the Allied victory in the Second World War and would have died without any public recognition if not for him His first encounter with the intelligence community was a lecture given at his school by John le Carr the guest of a Benedictine monk who had recently retired from MI6 Later West worked as a researcher for SOE agent Ronnie Seth who was sentenced to death by the Nazis after being captured during Operation blunderhead and exposed two of the Cambridge spies recruited by Anthony Blunt For the fortieth anniversary of the D Day landings West traced the double agent codenamed garbo and brought him to London so he could be decorated at Buckingham Palace As action packed as the lives of the spies he has written about this is the story of the most enthralling and significant post war intelligence revelations as told by Britain s most authoritative writer on espionage and the secret services

The Secret State Richard C. Thurlow,1995-01-09 This is a history of the secret activities of the British government in response to threats to the nation s well being and stability during the twentieth century It is based on intensive and widespread research in private and public archives and on documents many of which have only recently come to light or been made available The dangers perceived by the state have been manifold and various coming from within and from abroad Anarchists fascists socialists communists the IRA trades unionists and animal activists as well as spies terrorists and saboteurs have been the subject of undercover investigation along with almost every large scale movement from suffragettes to campaigners for peace and nuclear disarmament The author describes the methods and people employed and the mixed nature of their results The British state has always seen itself as civil and liberal but as Dr Thurlow shows it has sometimes been far from open The government has had many weapons at its disposal from public order acts censorship internment and proscription on the one hand to covert operations infiltration and manipulation on the other Yet when examined in the light of new evidence the activities of the state are fully comprehensible only in terms of those who comprised it The author shows the tensions among the departments between MI5 MI6 SIS and the Special Branch for example and the crucial part played by individuals whose motives were often far from what the government supposed them to be This is an at times disturbing at others almost comical but always fascinating account It throws light on the inmost workings of the state as well as on the movements and people subject to investigation and action

Just Keep a Bag Packed Edna Carr Green, 2013-01-24 Most memoirs are written by famous men important men who have led successful lives One hears little of their wives except a thank you for your patience or a dedication in the introduction This memoir is nothing like that I have been married for fifty two years but you will scarcely find a mention of my husband in this book This is my story It is the story of a girl who left the still war torn United Kingdom and entered the confusing world of the Middle East New languages new customs and a quick shift from the life of a single girl in Regents Park to a mother with a tiny baby in an Arab village with no doctors or other facilities not even a telephone to call home A sense of humor was required to survive so I hope the reader will find the story amusing
